Cruzin' Clinton car show open for entrants

Special to The Clinton Courier

Main Street Clinton's "Cruzin' Clinton" Car Show is scheduled for Saturday, September 21, and is open to all years, makes and models, including classics, street rods, muscle cars, trucks and rat rods.

Onsite registration and check-in begin at 8 a.m. at the Clinton Plaza parking lot at 200 Clinton Boulevard. The show will begin at 9 a.m. with the popular car parade from Clinton Plaza Shopping Center through town, followed by the show in Olde Towne on Jefferson Street from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

Pre-registration is $20 through September 10, and on-site registration will be $25. Individuals interested in entering a car can register at www.MainStreetClinton.com/Cruzin or at the Main Street Clinton office at the Olde Towne Depot at 281 East Leake Street.

There will be no admission fee for the public to view the cars, and there will be music and food for attendees to enjoy, as well. Swag bags will be presented to the first fifty participants registered, and more than thirty awards will be given in numerous categories.

For more information, follow Cruzin' Clinton on Facebook, visit the Main Street Clinton website at www.MainStreetClintonMS.com, or call 601-924-5472.
