The Carroll County Soil and Water Conservation District will conduct a farm conservation planning and financial assistance registration period for Carroll County Farmers on Thursday, September 16, 2010 in the Carroll County, Tennessee Courthouse Annex, 101 E. Main Street, Carrollton, Tennessee, beginning at 9:00 AM. This event is sponsored by the Tennessee Department of Agriculture and the United States Department of Agriculture. The Conservation Planning team will be on hand to share detailed information about managing soil and water conservation on your land. The planning session consists of a tour of the area from the courthouse to the outskirts of the county, and discussion about the benefits of good land management practices for the farmer.

Every year, the McKenzie Banner offers a Scholarship for students attending the University of Tennessee. The new scholarship, the Franklin and Connie Varros Scholarship, will be awarded each year to a student studying in a field related to journalism. The scholarship is named in honor of Franklin and Connie Varros, who were both journalists and long-time residents of McKenzie.
