BIRD'S EYE VIEW OF ELEVATOR,

Bird's Eye View of Elevator, Dixon, MO previous to 1913. Submitted by Donna Knapp

(Information Submitted by David Martin)

BIRD'S EYE VIEW OF ELEVATOR, DIXON, MO. - We have a number of Dixon landmarks in this photograph beginning on the left side with Chestnut Street which leads to the Dixon Cemetery; the Frisco Railroad; the Frisco Train Station/Depot; the stockyards; the first grain elevator; the lumber yard along First Street; area destroyed by the fire on August 6, 1913 on Second Street from Rinehart & Holland Hardware (stone building on the right) all the way west to the Modern Mercantile Store at the next corner on Elm Street; the Opera House with the tall spire on the horizon to the west used for school and community entertainments; the large two story white building closer in being the Wainwright Drug Store and the Wainwright family being the first to have in-home gas lighting in Dixon; back to the west, the Methodist Church South; closer in, the Methodist Church North (before the two were united); and the First Christian Church in the distant trees to the right.

Cardinal Baseball Star to Appear at Dixon Store Friday

Mike Shannon, the St. Louis Cardinals strong arm right fielder, will be in Dixon Friday afternoon at the IGA Foodliner. Mike will be available for autographs from 3 to 6 p.m. He will also distribute free autographed pictures.

Shannon was one of the stars whose inspired play led the Cardinals to the pennant in 1964 and later to victory in the World Series over the Yankees.
