

GHS student Callie Jernigan shot her first deer, a 10-point, on the Jernigan Ranch west of Goldthwaite last season. She used her great grandfather's .243 rifle at 100 yds. Her parents are Bryan and Leigh Anne Jernigan; grandparents are Harlan and Anita Jernigan, Jim and Lois Williams, all of Goldthwaite.

Decklyn Oliver downed this huge twelve-point buck in Eastern Mills County with a .300 Winchester Magnum rifle. His father is Curtis Oliver. Congratulations Decklyn on a real Mills County Trophy!

Goldthwaite resident Monica Hem-sath bagged this wide buck at the RRR Ranch on Saturday, December 2nd last year 5:15 pm. She made it to the Annual Parade of Lights in Goldthwaite by 6:00 PM. That's amazing hunting and time management.

Tyler Jackson, 15, of Liberty Hill, took this 11-point with a droptine – the first multi-point buck that he's harvested – at the Triple D Ranch in Mills County last season with one shot of a .243 rifle. He is the son of Todd and Diane Jackson of Liberty Hill, and grandson of Don Lipkke.

Ethan Jones bagged this 20 inch wide ten point buck last season while hunting with Steven Bridges on the Graves XTC Ranch in northeast Mills County. Ethan shot the buck at 120 yards with his .243 rifle. After Ethan downed the ten point, he also shot a cull buck that was standing nearby. Both bucks went down quickly with clean, one-shot kills earning Ethan the nickname Ethan 'Two For' Jones.

Jim Schunke downed this buck with his Remington 788 in .243 Win, loaded with Federal Fusion 95gr rounds. The buck came by his stand at 75 yards trailing a hot doe in the early morning fog during the rut last season.

Tom Graves bagged this nice buck on the XTC Graves Family Ranch over Thanksgiving break. Tom shot the buck with his .308 rifle at around 100 yards. At the time of the shot, Tom had 19 deer in front of his stand ... 11 of them bucks.
