I am 1 year old. Remember me? Sorry I didn't want to sit in your lap this year. I'm really independent and wanted to play with the rocking horse and read your books! I am just now developing my conscious and I am learning I can make my own decisions. This has been very helpful for me to better understand others emotions and plan actions and be a kind and helpful little boy. All these new skills are exciting and I am trying really hard to them all for good. Thank you so much for the gifts you gave me last year. I have taken really good care of them. For this Christmas...I like to climb so maybe a jungle gym dome

I love to clean, cook and work on things so maybe a kitchen set, vacuum, or a tool box

And lastly I love to be outside so maybe you can talk my mom and dad into letting me go duck hunting with my daddy one warm sunny afternoon so I may need a pair of waders too. I know this is a big list Santa! I don't need it all. You have lots of toys to make for other little boys and girls around the world. We will be sure to leave you some milk and cookies when you come and a little treat for your reindeer too!
