

Blessing Box is back in operation for community

SPECIAL TO THE R-H

The Blessing Box, located behind Greensburg United Methodist Church, is back in operation. People from the community are invited to be part of this ministry in one of two ways. If extra food is available, please put boxes or cans of food in the Blessing Box. The Box is always unlocked and food may be added day or night. Please do not put fresh produce or perishable items in the Blessing Box. If there is a need for food, please take some boxes or cans out of the Blessing Box. The church asks for people to not remove food from the Blessing Box more than once a week. They also ask that people not take more than eight or ten cans at a time. The goal is to help many families in Green County who may be struggling to put food on the table.

All of this operates on the honor system so if someone removes all the food in the Blessing Box at one time, that just means that several other families will not be helped. Please be considerate of others in the community. Greensburg United Methodist Church is grateful to other churches and individuals who have been so supportive of this ministry that helps several people in Green County.

Givens and Judd named Sen. Jeff Green Scholars

SPECIAL TO THE RH

Matthew Givens and Tayler Judd, 2018 graduates of Green County High School, have been named Senator Jeff Green Scholars by the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority (KHEAA).

To earn this honor, a student must have a 4.0 grade point average each year of high school and at least a 28 composite on the ACT.

Givens and Judd have also earned $2,500 a year in Kentucky Educational Excellence Scholarship (KEES) awards. If they keep their grades up in college, they will have $10,000 to use toward a four-year degree.

The designation honors the late state Sen. Jeff Green of Mayfield, who served in the Kentucky General Assembly from 1992 to 1997.

KEES and other Kentucky student aid programs are administered by KHEAA.

Green County Primary and Intermediate Schools are collecting Box Tops for Education.

Clip these tops off of participating products and to help the schools earn money! Drop off at either school or at the R-H office.

KEES awards are funded by net Kentucky lottery proceeds and may be used at most colleges and universities in Kentucky. In some cases, the award may be used at an out-of-state school if the major the student is pursuing is not available in Kentucky.

No application is necessary for KEES awards. For more information about Kentucky scholarships and grants, visit www.kheaa.com; write KHEAA, P.O. Box 798, Frankfort, KY 40602; or call 800-928-8926, ext. 6-7214.
