Saraland seniors have 'a ton' of experience

This year's Saraland baseball team is one that has been in the making for several seasons. A whopping 15 seniors grace the Spartans' roster — 11 of which have already signed college scholarships, with others expected to sign as well — thus giving head coach Brett Boutwell a lot of experience and lineup options for the coming season.

"This is the first time since we've been here that we've got a senior-dominant team," Boutwell said. "This is a group that's been playing together for the last two or three years and they are a veteran team. They've got a ton of varsity games and a ton of varsity at-bats and innings under their belt. That's what I'm excited about."
