MOBILE – For UMS-Wright’s baseball team, it’s not whether the talent is there for a successful season, but how quickly the Bulldogs come together as a group.

“We’d lost a lot of kids to graduation the year before, so we had to have some young players step up last year and we ended up being area champs,” said Bulldogs head coach Kevin Raley of his team that lost to Trinity in the first round of the state playoffs.

“We played a lot of young kids, but a lot of them did a good job. So we’re
