Quilt guild meets

The Pieces and Patches Quilt Guild was called to order by President Mary Parrott on December 13, 2018 at 9:30 a.m. at the K-State Extension Office Conference Room. Roll call was answered by 26 members.

The meeting was suspended for the Annual Christmas Brunch. Judy Stukey read the story of why the book "Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer" was written. After a delicious breakfast and a fabric swap game, the meeting continued.

The minutes of the November meeting were approved as printed in the Newsletter. Lynda Feuerborn gave the Treasurer report.

Committee Reports:

Program:

Jeanette Gadelman reminded us that there will be a Sew-In following our January 24, 2019 meeting. There will be soup for lunch, so bring whatever accompaniment you want.

There is one spot remaining for the October 2019 retreat.

Charity Quilts:

Sandra Moffatt reported that Guest Home Estates, Parkview

Heights and Richmond Healthcare and Rehabilitation Center are all interested in receiving fidget quilts for their residents. They could use a total of 17 fidget quilts at this time.

Sandra took 7 lap quilts to Guest Home Estates and 4 baby quilts to ECKAN. More lap quilts are needed.

2019 Opportunity Quilt:

Brenda Weiens expects to complete the custom machine quilting by the end of the year.

2020 Opportunity Quilt:

Judy Stukey has agreed to be the chairman.

2018 Block of the Month:

Cynthia Fletcher showed her completed quilt and asked if anyone else had theirs to show. The following members showed theirs: Connie Hatch, Sharon Rich, Donna Sutton and Terrie Gifford. Bonnie Deiter had already made her blocks into 2 quilts which she donated for Project HALOS.

2019 Block of the Month:

Sharon Rich and Mary Parrott will lead the 2019 Block of the Month. They will be presenting See guild Page 15
