

Chambers Bank Was Proud to be a Rodeo Sponsor

 We salute the Yell County Mounted Patrol who uses the True Grit Rodeo as a Fundraiser to Fund the Mounted Patrol in its Rescue and Search operations in Yell County

During the True Grit Rodeo, on Friday night, Blair Henry is shown carrying the CK Flag, and Tammy Peak is shown carrying the Yell County mounted Patrol Flag.

Shown (l to r) is Drew Dollar with the Arkansas flag, Abby Henson with the Dardanelle Riding Club flag, and Jason Allen with the American flag at the recent True Grit Rodeo.

Chambers Bank always supports the Yell County Mounted Patrol and was a sponsor for the True Grit Mounted Patrol Rodeo.

Marilyn and Tommy Shay were among the first to recognize "True Grit" in Dardanelle. Tommy is wearing a "True Grit Trail" original T-Shirt.

Yell County Mounted Patrol members John Frank and Gary Dennis were just a couple of the many volunteers that helped out during the True Grit Rodeo weekend.

Tom Fowler, Brett McDuffie, and Robert Fowler, all members of the Yell County Mounted Patrol are shown as they volunteered during the rodeo.

Eliana Pelts is shown participating in the Mutton Bustin competition that was held during the True Grit Rodeo.

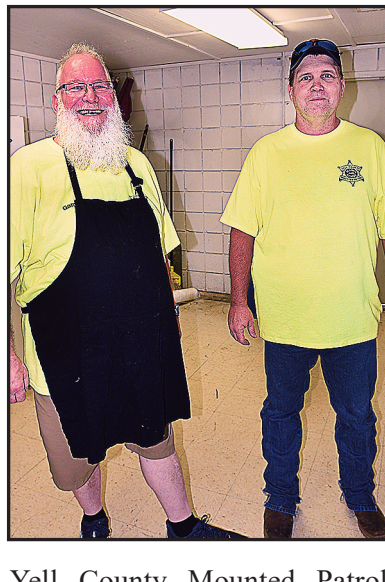

Macie Essman and all her sass attended the True Grit Rodeo recently.

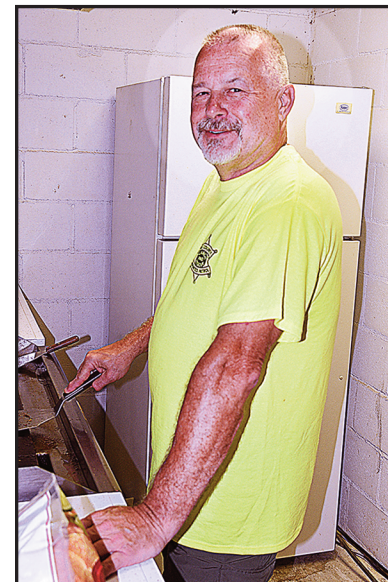

Drew Johnson is shown during his wild broc ride holding on while the clock was ticking.

Hayden Harris was proudly in the Rodeo and has portrayed Maddie Ross for years who starred in the Movie True Grit.

Yell County Mounted Patrol Members Mike Garner and Edward Brown are shown having a good time while volunteering for a good cause.

Addison Finkenbinder attended the rodeo, and it looks like she had a great time.

A Special Thanks to all of our Volunteers
