Letitia Daulton, representing the Northwest Magazine, of St. Paul, secured a number of subscribers here to this really valuable publication yesterday. During the sixteen or seventeen years that this magazine has been published, it has accomplished much good to the section of country which it represents and is entitled to a liberal patronage.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hume left last Saturday for Detroit where they will assist an "all-star" home theatrical company in the performance of a strong play one night this week in that city. They have taken prominent parts in similar local entertainments there in past years and will enjoy a pleasant week's association with old friends.

Messrs. Fines & Scott, who have recently been conducting the Palace restaurant on First street, left last Tuesday for Solway, where they are engaged in a similar line of business in a first-class location. Since these men have resided in Fosston they have proved themselves to be experienced restaurateurs, gentlemen in every way and we can recommend them to the confidence of the people of Solway.

Seek not to steal the other fellow's light. Rather put on steam and make your own. Do whatever you do with all your might. By taking Rocky Mountain Tea at night.—Ask your druggist.

To Stop a Cold. After exposure or when you feel a cold coming on, take a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar. It never fails to stop a cold if taken in time. Take nothing else.—Ed. Ruud.

Mrs. Wm. Cameron went to Shevlin last Monday to visit friends.
P. M. Mark purchased Wm. Umland's broncho roadsters last Wednesday.
P. H. Pederson, of Bagley, was greeting old friends here last Monday and Tuesday.
Ole K. Ringstad was over from Lengby last Sunday, remaining until Monday morning.
Z. N. Steele took a load of Standard oil to McIntosh last Monday to enlighten that little burg.
Miss M. Cameron, who had been visiting friends here, returned to Crookston last Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McArty, of Bagley, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Hume over Sunday last.
Axel A. Anderson, now in the mercantile business at Leon, in Beltrami county, was in town yesterday after a load of goods.
Will Bloom, a well known Crookston young man, is said to be dying of consumption at Phoenix, Arizona, where he went for his health.
W. E. Black has secured the agency for the Caledonian Insurance Co., of Scotland. This is a very reliable company, having done business nearly a century.
Miss Dora Bakke returned from a visit to Willmar, this state, last Monday, accompanied by Miss Kent, and together they opened their millinery store yesterday.
Mrs. Frank Vetteson, of Shevlin, who has been at Minneapolis taking electric treatment for paralysis has returned home but little if any benefited by the treatment.
Mrs. Melting of Halstad was recently married to a man named Kittle, of Gray, and the Halstad reporter heads the notice Melting-Kittle.—Hot stuff, eh?—Crookston Times.
Bennett Larson shook hands around among his friends and left last Monday for his father's stock ranch on Mouse River, in North Dakota, where he will make his home for some time to come.
As an evidence of the fact that the people of Fosston are used to saving, it may be mentioned that one of our prominent citizens is suffering from a genuine attack of gout at the present time.
Miss Kate Umland left home once more on Saturday last bound for New York City where she will remain for the next three months. She stopped over Sunday at Solway visiting her sister there.
Johannes Lade made a business trip east last week as far as Grand Rapids, stopping on his way at Cass Lake, where he found a booming town and an enterprising class of people. He returned home Saturday.
Lane R. Fishbeck has been appointed special administrator of the Hannah R. Reid estate and will sell the personal effects of the deceased by public auction on Saturday, March 10th. See notice of sale elsewhere in this issue.
A spreading rail threw a freight engine off the track near the Fosston Elevator & Flouring Mill siding yesterday afternoon and the west-bound passenger train was somewhat delayed. No damage was done to the engine as it was running slowly and it was soon on the track once more ready for work.

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, Crookston, Minn., Feb. 28, 1900.
A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Amund Johnson, contestant, against homestead entry No. 157, made July 17, 1897, for ne 1/4, nw 1/4, sw 1/4, nw 1/4 sec. 25, Twp. 151, Rg. 38 W. by Sigri I. Dokken, contestee, in which it is alleged that the said Sigri I. Dokken has wholly abandoned said tract, and has not resided upon and cultivated the same, for over one year immediately preceding the commencement of this action, and the making of this affidavit, and that said alleged absence from the said land was not due to her employment in the army or marine corps of the United States as a nurse, or otherwise, during the war with Spain, or during any other war in which the United States may be engaged, said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on April 23d, 1900, before Oswald A. Brauer, a Notary Public at Fosston, Polk Co., Minnesota.
And that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. April 30, 1900, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Crookston, Minn.
The said contestant having in a proper affidavit filed Feb. 28th, 1900, set forth facts which show that after due diligence, personal service can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.

Mortgage Sale.
Whereas default has been made in the conditions of a certain indenture of Mortgage dated January 14th, 1898, made and delivered by Ole Westad, an unmarried man, to Albert Kaiser, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for the County of Polk and State of Minnesota on the 15th day of January 1898, at 4 o'clock P. M., in Book 83 of Mortgages on page 222, and whereas said default consists in the failure of the Mortgagor to pay the several installments of interest, which became due January 13th, 1899 and January 13th, 1900, amounting in each case to the sum of Fifteen Dollars and 25 cents, and upon such default the Mortgagee may declare the whole sum due, and the Mortgagee does so elect and declare the whole sum secured by said Mortgage to be due, amounting at the date of this notice, principal and interest, to the sum of One Hundred Eighty-one and 92-100 dollars, and no proceedings at law or otherwise having been instituted to recover said debt or any part thereof.
Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that by virtue of the power of sale in said Mortgage contained, and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, said Mortgage will be foreclosed and the premises described therein, to-wit:
The South-West quarter of the North-East quarter of Section Twenty-three, Township numbered One Hundred and Forty-seven, north of Range Forty-two, west of the fifth principal meridian in Polk county, Minnesota, together with the hereditaments and appurtenances thereto belonging, will be sold at public vendue, to the highest bidder for cash, which sale will be made by the Sheriff of Polk county at the front door of the Court House in the City of Crookston, in said county, on Monday, April 16th A. D. 1900, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day to pay said debt and interest and taxes, if any, and the costs of sale, together with an attorneys fee of twenty-five dollars as provided in and by said Mortgage in case of foreclosure, and the disbursements allowed by law, subject to redemption at any time within one year from the day of sale as provided by law.
Dated March 2d, 1900.
