Barred Plymouth Rocks. From now on I will occasionally have a few settings of eggs to sell from my Barred Plymouth Rock hens. They are A. C. Hawkins' stock. No better blood in the United States. Price $1.00 per 13. (m 10) ED. RUUD.

Farms for Sale. I have for sale at a bargain one farm 120 acres, 2 1/2 miles from town. Also one farm 3 miles from town. Also unimproved lands in Polk and Beltrami counties that I can sell you at a bargain and on reasonable terms. J. A. HENDRICKS.

An Editor's Life Saved by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. During the early part of October, 1896, I contracted a bad cold which settled on my lungs and was neglected until I feared that consumption had appeared in an incipient state. I was constantly coughing and trying to expel something which I could not. I became alarmed and after giving the local doctor a trial, bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the result was immediate improvement, and after I had used three bottles my lungs were restored their healthy state.—B. S. Edwards, Publisher of The Review, Wyant, Ill. For sale by P. M. Mark.

To Stop a Cold. After exposure or when you feel a cold coming on, take a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar. It never fails to stop a cold if taken in time. Take nothing else.—Ed. Ruud.

My mother suffered with chronic diarrhoea for several months. She was attended by two physicians who at last pronounced her case hopeless. She procured one 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and five doses gave her permanent relief. I take pleasure in recommending it as the best on the market.—Mrs. F. E. Watson, Aiken, Ala. For sale by P. M. Mark.

H. W. Barker's Aesculapian will cure that awful headache. 25 cents at P. M. Mark's drug store.

H. W. Barker's Iron compound will cure that awful blood disease, coughs, colds and a gripe. 50 cents at P. M. Mark's drug store.

I. P. Byhre, who is now engaged in the mercantile business at Cass Lake, was back to Pine Lake this week and left this morning for Cass Lake, accompanied by his family.

Andrew Jacobson, of Fergus Falls, and E. A. Engbretson, of Fargo, president and vice president respectively of the First State Bank of Fosston, came up from Crookston this morning.

That new chair car, "LaPrairie," now attached to the passenger trains on this line, is a beauty. The Great Northern is furnishing an excellent passenger service throughout this line, but is well repaid for it by a large patronage.

On Monday next, at the residence of Mrs. J. O. Johnson, the marriage of two young people of that vicinity will take place, Mr. Ludwig Sogaard, intending on that day to take to himself as a wife Miss Christine Evje, daughter of Gabriel Evje.

Max Siegel, a lumberman who has been working in N. S. Perkins' camp on Ruffe Brook this winter, was brought to the Fosston Hospital last evening suffering from a broken leg. While loading logs a large one rolled onto his right leg, breaking it above the ankle.

Dr. Umland writes from Pipestone Springs, Mont., that he is in the spring water, by the gallon and that Martin Randleklev is enjoying himself in the baths like a ten year old. While his health is improving, the doctor is not yet able to stand the baths.

The outlook for the Fosston wind stacker looks bright this spring. Last week when S. N. Sorensen returned from Fargo he found two orders for these stackers in his mail. Orders received this early show that threshmen intend to have them on hand in good season this year.

A warm election fight at Crookston is on hand. J. W. Wheeler heads the republican ticket for mayor, and N. Campbell, the well known "Oklahoma" at both ends, starts the citizens' ticket off. Both men are very popular and have their friends who will put up a strong fight on either sides.

The small boy who spends his time collecting tobacco jags and wrappers in order to secure a tack-knife offered by a generous tobacco company, will be out of a job henceforth. The treasury department has ruled that no tobacco company can ship premiums for tags or other things that accompany the "plug."

Fred Wynn came over from the Marais last Monday to meet a few teams of horses belonging to the Cameron farm, of which Mr. Wynn is in charge, that were on their way home from the lumber camps where they have been hauling logs this winter. Western Polk county air appears to agree with Fred for he is looking well.

Ole Eggen, who resided in Fosston for a number of months, was brought in from the Fagerstrom saw mill Wednesday and taken to the Fosston Hospital, suffering from painful injuries to one of his hands which had been caught by the saw. His thumb and three fingers were badly lacerated, his third finger requiring amputation at the first joint.

E. L. Brown has resigned his position as local agent of the Great Northern. It appears that the company insisted on Mr. Brown making good the amount secured by the men who cracked the depot safe some months ago—$225—but he refused to do so.—Beltrami County News.

In causing the resignation of Mr. Brown, the Great Northern lost one of the best men they have ever had upon their payroll. He was agent at Fosston for some time, during which period he proved himself to be an able man in every way.

A. R. De Fulen editor of the Journal, Doylestown, Ohio, suffered for a number of years from rheumatism in the right shoulder and side. He says: "My right arm at times was entirely useless. I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and was surprised to receive relief almost immediately. The Pain Balm has been a constant companion of mine ever since and it never fails." For sale by P. M. Mark.

$50,000 to loan on real estate. Apply to W. E. BLACK.

For Sale. Choice residence lots in Stadsfold and Lohn's addition.

If you invest in a home what you are paying out in rent, you will soon own a home of your own and instead of paying out so much every year in rent for nothing, invest in some lots and in a short time you will be the owner of your own home. Now is the time to invest before prices advance. And before you make any investment be sure and call on the undersigned and see what bargains he has on some of the finest residence lots in the village. J. A. HENDRICKS.

We have saved many doctor bills since we began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home. We keep a bottle open all the time and whenever any of my family or myself begin to catch cold we begin to use the Cough Remedy, and as a result we never have to send away for a doctor and incur a large doctor bill, for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never fails to cure. It is certainly a medicine of great merit and worth.—D. S. Mearkley, General Merchant and Farmer, Mattie, Bedford county, Pa. For sale by P. M. Mark.

FATAL delays are caused by experimenting with cough and cold cures. FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR will prevent a cold from resulting in PNEUMONIA.—Ed. Ruud.

H. W. Barker's Iron compound will cure that awful blood disease, coughs, colds and a gripe. 50 cents at P. M. Mark's drug store.

H. W. Barker's Aesculapian will cure that awful headache. 25 cents at P. M. Mark's drug store.

By residents of Winsor, in Beltrami county, and vicinity, to stand regularly at a convenient barn. A profitable point for the owner of a good stallion to visit.

A great shooting tournament is being arranged to take place at Grand Forks in June. On the 12th and 13th the regular North Dakota state tournament occurs, and on the 14th and 15th those who want to compete for prizes, outside of that state, can take part. Members from northern Minnesota will be there and the event will be looked forward to with much interest by sportsmen throughout this section of the country.

Seek not to steal the other fellow's light. Rather put on steam and make your own. Do whatever you do with all your might. By taking Rocky Mountain Tea at night. —P. M. Mark.

Numerous inquiries are being made regarding the issuing of postage stamps in book form which has been promised by the postoffice department. Postmaster Lohn informs us that these postage stamp books will probably not be received by him for distribution to the public before the first of May. The idea is intended as an accommodation to the public, the stamps, inclosed in covers, being then much more convenient to carry.

For the first time since the local electric light plant was started, it was shut down for repairs on Sunday night last. An unavoidable break in the engine caused the stopping of the light, but fortunately it occurred shortly after nine o'clock, after church was out and all good citizens were supposed to be at home, and the injury was repaired so that by six o'clock the next morning everything was running the same as before. For the length of time the engine has been running, almost continuously, the management has made an exceptionally good record.

W. L. Yancy, Paducah, Ky., writes: "I had a severe case of kidney disease and three of the best physicians in southern Kentucky treated me without success. I was induced to try Foley's Kidney Cure. The first bottle gave immediate relief and three bottles cured me permanently. I gladly recommend this wonderful remedy.—Ed. Ruud.

For Catarrhal Deafness.

You will find Bunson's Cream Catarrhal just the remedy you need. Avoid drying inhalants; use that which cleans and heals the membrane. Bunson's Cream Catarrhal is such a remedy. Cures Catarrh easily and pleasantly. It is quickly absorbed. Gives instant relief. It opens and cleans the nasal passages. Regular size fifty cents. Sample free; also pamphlet telling all about catarrh. Address C. W. Berggs, Sons & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Ed. Ruud.

Three good farms within 3 miles of Fosston and McIntosh for sale cheap for cash. Bank of Fosston.

Frequent Coughing

inflames the lungs. Foley's Honey and Tar stops the coughing and heals the lungs. The ordinary cough medicines which are simply expectorants, will not do this, as they keep the lungs irritated in throwing off the phlegm.—Ed. Ruud.

Store for Sale at Lengby.

I will trade my store building at Lengby for farm property, or sell cheap for cash. The building is two stories high, well built and in good repair. Write to or call on A. ARGALL, East Grand Forks, Minn.
