"This is too much, John, I won't stand it any longer. Tomorrow I leave for my mother's unless you get me more Rocky Mountain Tea." Sensible woman. 35c.—P. M. Mark.

Antone Christenson, of Lanesboro, the well known member of the firm of horse dealers, Christenson & Lund, wrote an interesting letter recently to the Journal of that place from Hot Springs, Ark., in which he describes his travels through Kansas, Oklahoma and other states. He was well pleased with the country down there, and especially with the famous hot springs.

Silas Kennedy, who once resided near Fosston, writes on the 4th of this month from the state of Maine, where he has spent the winter, that the snow was then from four to six feet in depth and that about thirteen feet of snow in all has fallen there since Christmas. He thinks Maine is a good state for one to get exercise in as you can shovel snow and break roads all the time. He was coming back to Doran, Minnesota, in a few days.

To Stop a Cold.
After exposure or when you feel a cold coming on, take a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar. It never fails to stop a cold if taken in time. Take nothing else.—Ed. Ruud.

The Best in the World.
We believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and a troublesome cough, and having read their advertisements in our own and other papers we purchased a bottle to see if it would affect us. It cured us before the bottle was more than half used. It is the best medicine out for colds and coughs.—The Herald, Andersonville, Ind. For sale by P. M. Mark.

$50,000 to loan on real estate. Apply to W. E. BLACK.

M. E. Randklev returned from Pipestone Springs, Mont., last Monday, and Dr. Umland came yesterday morning. The former was well pleased with his trip and feels that it done him good. Dr. Umland, however, did not receive as much benefit owing to a severe cold contracted while taking one of the baths and from which he has not yet fully recovered. He has great faith in the hot springs there, but found the hotel accommodations lacking in some important points.

K. H. Sanbak, J. B. Steffenson and E. O. Hough were here a few days this week from Leonard, Beltrami county, where Mr. Hough had an accident with his saw mill one day last week. His head sawyer, Gust Berg, had left a few days before and Mr. Hough controlled the lever himself when by some mischance the saw ran into one of the "dogs" that hold the logs on the carrier, and a large section of the saw was broken out. Fortunately no one was hurt, but it puts the owner of the mill to considerable inconvenience and expense.

The Fosston Wind Stacker Company is making every necessary preparation for doing a large business this season. Agents are being appointed throughout Minnesota and North Dakota, they being selected from among the foremost farm machinery dealers. Prospects are very bright, for orders are coming in continually from those who intend to make a sure thing of having a Fosston Wind Stacker to commence their threshing next fall. No complaints whatever have come from any who used these machines last season, or who saw them working.
