COUNTRY AND TOWN.

God made the country and man made the town. What wonder, then, that health and virtue, gifts that alone make sweet and bitter draft That life holds out to all, should most abound And least be threatened in the fields and groves? Possess ye, therefore, ye who, borne about In chariots and sedans, know no fatigue But that of idleness and taste no scenes But such as art contrives, possess ye still Your element; there only can ye shine. There only minds like yours can do no harm. Our groves were planted to console at noon The pensive wanderer in their shades. At eve The moonbeam, sliding softly in between The sleeping leaves, is all the light they wish, Birds watching all the music. We can spare The splendor of your lamps; they but eclipse Our softer satellite. Your songs confound Our harmonious notes. The thrush departs, Scared, and the offended nightingale is mute. There is a public mischief in your mirth, It plagues your country. Polly such as yours, Graced with a sword and worthier of a fan, Has made, which enemies could ne'er have done, Our arch of empire, steadfast but for you, A mutilated structure soon to fall.

—William Cowper in "The Task."

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard St., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure: "It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can never remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and 1.00. Trial bottles free at P. M. Mark's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

HOW TO BECOME A HERO.

1. The present war has made Jenkins long to be a hero, and after a long course of reading—

2.—he luckily came across a drowning man the other day. In one instant he had rushed forward—

3.—and jumped in to save the man. It was true he kicked the gentleman in the eye, but that was an accident.

4. Then, as the book told him to hit the drowning man over the head, he proceeded to do it.

5. And was quite surprised, when he landed the victim, to find himself rushed off to the police station—

6.—and charged with attempting to kill the man he tried to save. And, lucky for him, he got off with a heavy fine.
