O. E. Juvrud, a leading merchant of Rothsay, this state, was registered at the Commercial yesterday, with his brother, John E., of this place, whom he was visiting.

The spacious dining room of the Commercial hotel is greatly improved by the change of tables. Large, roomy ones now take the place of the old tables that have done service many years.

A number of people from Fosston and vicinity attended the district convention of the Synod church held at Eskine this week, among them being Revs. Sather and Nesseth, Mr. and Mrs. O. Vaaler, Ole Asleson, Elling Vigorn and Jacob Olson. Interesting meetings were held.

Olof Berglund was down from Winsor today. He had a fine bay team, but they evidently are not used to city life for they took a lively run down First street and from there to the railroad track. This they followed a short distance and then went over the side of the grade. Fortunately they were stopped before any damage was done to wagon or themselves.

If You Want a Farm

A delicious and simple dessert: Crush slightly a quart of fresh strawberries; pour on a cupful of sweetened orange juice and a half cupful of sweetened water. Freeze to the consistency of a frape and serve in punch glasses with a spoonful of whipped cream and a strawberry on top.

Gilbert Hanson, a brother of Christian Hanson, of Eden, accompanied by Martin L. Vindsnes, both of Mayville, N. D., were in town Wednesday looking up Red Lake plats with the intention of taking claims under the new law. The passage of the "reclamation" bill is bringing many good settlers into the country that otherwise would never have taken up land on the reservation.

Would Not Suffer so Again for Fifty Times Its Price.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller & McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dose fixed me alright. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care to endure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price. G. H. Wilson, Livertown, Burgetstown, Washington Co., Va. This remedy is for sale by P. M. Mark.

However, the company has done an excellent business and have proved beyond doubt that the Fosston wind stacker is a success and a ready seller.

On Friday evening, June 22, the Bemidji Volunteer Fire Department will give a grand ball for the benefit of the fireman's tournament fund. Our boys are making extensive preparations to attend the annual tournament which will be held at Fosston on June 27, 28 and 29, and the indications are that this will be the biggest fireman's meeting ever held in the Northwest. There will be at least nine departments which will participate in the event, and the citizens of Fosston are arranging to give the boys a grand reception. Bemidji has without question the best equipped and largest in membership of any department in the association, and with their spic and span new uniforms they should cut quite a figure at the annual meet. The tournament will undoubtedly be held at Bemidji next year, and it is hoped to draw a large attendance, so it will stand our citizens in hand to do the proper thing this year.—Beltrami County News.
