Congregational Church.
On Monday evening a business meeting was held, at which the following were elected trustees of the church: Lewis Lohn, A. Kaiser, J. C. Scott, G. D. Dunlevy, S. C. Yeager, S. S. Stads-vold, B. S. Bennett and Mrs. J. E. Campbell.

Mr. Lohn was elected church treasurer and Mr. Yeager church clerk. It is hoped that with this strong board of management the business of the church will be placed upon a sound basis. Fosston needs a strong energetic American church and if the indifferent and indolent would combine with those who are working for its upbuilding, there would soon be a church here that would be a power in the community. In all probability the present pastor will soon be leaving but the church is bound to go on and prosper and it remains for each one to do his or her share, energetically and persistently, so that the next pastor may feel from the start the enthusiasm which only association can bring.

The S. S. is maintaining a good attendance during the summer weeks. Mrs. Bennett's class secured the banner for the present month. Miss Hattie Olson and Miss Awilda Staples have taken charge of classes.

Sunday school at 11 a. m.
Regular evening service at 8 p. m. Good singing. Short talk. You are invited.

Cigars for the Tournament.
If you are going to sell cigars at your stand during the tournament next week, remember the Fosston Cigar factory, F. C. Nicolai proprietor, has a large assortment to choose from at wholesale prices. You can buy of him the best cigars on the market and also the cheaper brands. Call on him for what you want. Special brands for the tournament at very lowest prices.

Baseball.
The managers of our local team have been fortunate in securing two good match games for the tournament, one with Crookston's well known team for Friday, the 29th, the game to commence at 12:30 sharp on the diamond in the fair grounds. While Crookston is known to have one of the best teams in Northern Minnesota, the home nine are in such shape now that they will give them a hard battle if they win. The Crookston boys who may think it will be "easy" will find out different before the game is over.

On the previous day, Thursday, at the same hour, the strong team of Red Lake Falls will do battle with our home players on the same diamond and at the same hour. Red Lake Falls has a baseball club that has won many victories and the public can be promised a first class ball game on both Thursday and Friday afternoons.

The Great McEwen.
McEwen, the hypnotist, who created such a sensation here a few weeks ago, will again visit Fosston during the tournament and give two of his mystifying and amusing entertainments at the Opera house, the evenings of Wednesday and Thursday, June 27th and 28th. If you have never seen one of McEwen's performances this is your opportunity. If you have seen him before you will want to go again this time.

Intending Tournament Visitors. Take Note.

It is now a month since diphtheria was finally crushed out in Fosston. There has not been a case since then and there were only three cases before that time within the limits for a year past. This is positive and people intending to visit our tournament are in less danger of this dreaded disease here in many cases than if they remain at home. Come along and enjoy yourselves in the healthiest and liveliest town in the county.
