LENGBY NEWS.

Lengby, June 21.—Martin Larson has moved into the Hotel and is making extensive improvements. When the work is finished he will have as good a hotel as anywhere along the line.

Mrs. Nelson accompanied by Master Ole and Misses Anna and Gea are visiting here today.

Mr. K. Thoreson is taking in the sights here today.

W. R. Cartwright is at Ebro hauling wood for Ringstad & Nelson.

The Italian gang that has been here for some time, struck for higher wages but not getting the raise they concluded to go elsewhere.

The brick kiln is now burning at full blast and brick can be had here in a few days.

Lavor Haugen, of Eden, is here today on business.

The Goodyear Rubber Co. man was here today and sold Ringstad & Nelson a lot of rubber goods for fall and winter trade.

A gang of carpenters are here making improvements on the elevator.

Messrs. F. M. Hartley and N. Miller were in town last Wednesday. Mr. Hartley, although a resident of Columbia, said it was his first visit to Lengby and expressed himself as being very much pleased with our little town.

Messrs. M. E. Swift and N. O. Nelson made a flying trip to Fosston last night on the hand car.

At least one home in Lengby has happiness enough to last a long time. W. R. Cartwright came down town Saturday morning wearing a great big smile. "What's up this morning, Billy?" we asked. "No, there is a girl!" he said, and was off before we had time to offer congratulations. Mother and child doing nicely.

Don't forget the picnic at John Stave's next Sunday.

Mrs. W. L. Hilliard went to Fosston this afternoon.

Mr. McRea, with the Twoby Mercantile Co., of West Superior was here on Wednesday looking after his customers.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50cts., guaranteed, at P. M. Mark's Drug Store.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard St., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"it soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and 1.00. Trial bottles free at P. M. Mark's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.
