THE TURF RECORD.

Emerson Cochran of Lexington, Ky., recently refused $4,000 for a 2-year-old filly by Clay King.

Sister Alice, 2:10 1/4, was recently stepped a quarter by McHenry over the Empire City (New York) track in 30 1/4 seconds.

Bonnatella won two races in Austria in April, beating such horses as Countess Eve, Athanio, Royal Baron and Ruth Wilkes.

The pacer Tom Tipton, 2:15 1/4, which is entered through the grand circuit, showed a mile at Selma recently in 2:14, last half in 1:04.

Red Shedd, a green pacer which S. D. Houghton of Worcester will campaign extensively this season, worked a mile in 2:20 last year.

Ed Clark has a grand prospect in Bulton M. G. by Almont Brunswick. He stepped a quarter in 34 seconds at Point Breeze (Pa.) track the other day.

Little Tobe, who as a trotter secured a record of 2:19 1/4, recently stepped a half mile at the pace in 1:09 and repeated in 1:06 1/2 over the Baltimore track.

The veteran trainer Sam Earing has a green pacer at work on the Bethlehem (Pa.) track that is showing quarter miles in 32 seconds and eighths in 14 1/2 seconds.

Parole, 2:16, has been pronounced by many horsemen the handsomest member of the Patron, 2:14 1/4—Prodigal, 2:10—Patronage branch of the Pa-coast family.

Prussian Maid, 2:19, has foaled a filly at Park Ridge, Ill., by Star Pointer, 1:59 1/4. The filly is marked with star, snip, left front and hind ankles white and stood 49 inches high an hour after birth.

The 5-year-old brown mare Pristine, by Parole, 2:16, will race this season in George A. Fuller's stable. She stands over 16 hands and is as handsome a big mare as ever stepped a track. Her owner, Mr. D. E. Hallock of York, Pa., thinks a record close to 2:10 is within her reach this year.

THE GLASS OF FASHION.

Taffeta silk Eton coats in either black or white are a very distinctive feature of fashion this season.

Sailor hats of Sumatra straw are one of the novelties. Khaki colored sailors with black or red bands are favored by English girls.

Renaissance lace braid is used as a trimming for silk waists, sewed on in a straight line between groups of tucks and for wash dresses in a trellis design.

Colored batiste, checked, striped and plain, is used for petticoats, trimmed elaborately with lace. These are recommended as much cooler than silk for summer wear.

Beautiful ribbons made of soft, glossy silk are brocaded with velvet floral designs in the natural colors. Gauze ribbons with satin spots and cashmere printed silk ribbons are special features in the ribbon department.

If there can be a rage for one item of dress, it is exemplified this season in the cravats. They are on nearly every gown in some form and confront you in the shops in formidable battalions which defy description.

In hats beige tinted straws are very popular, and gauze or tulle with one very large rose nodding at one side is a favorite trimming. Ecu tulle on a pure white straw with one immense rose of blue or pink at one side is charming.

A novelty in waists is made of ecru linen crash, woven with a coarse thread and open mesh, which makes it semitransparent. It is trimmed with bands of white linen embroidered in colors or with narrow heavy lace insertion and black velvet ribbon.—New York Sun.
