Interest in the Fair.

The special prizes amounting to $5 put up by the Fair Association this year for the encouragement of airy cows has already attracted considerable attention and the contest promises to be very interesting as well as profitable to the cattle business of the county. Cows from a distance, as well as from near at home will enter and this occasion will furnish an excellent opportunity for good cows to change hands at profitable figures. It must be understood that the milk tests that are to be made on the grounds will be superintended by competent men and that no fear or favor will influence the judges. See premium list for particulars of contest.

Judging from the number of persons who have intimated to us that they could have extensive exhibits at this year's fair it is safe to predict that as large or a larger exhibit of stock, vegetables, etc., will be made this year than any previous years.

Trotting and running horse races, reworks, etc., at Fosston's fair this year.

Congressman Eddy speaks at McIntosh tomorrow afternoon.

John Sullivan of Solway, spent Sunday last in Fosston.

J. E. Willborg is now teaching school in the town of Eddy.

Verner Hartley proved on a timber aim out east recently.

There is only one county fair in Polk county, and that is held at Fosston Sept. 7, 28, 29.

A number of cattle have been afflicted with a fatal disease about Teckla.

Jos. Kronenberg returned last Tuesday to his business in Butte, Mont.

J. P. Foote and Chas. Love were Crookston visitors here on Tuesday.

If you have not received a Fair premium list, write to or call at this office.

Bakke & Kent, the Milliners, are the ones to call upon if you want a nobby looking street hat.

Miss Edna Clough entertained a number of young people very agreeably last Tuesday evening.

A good education may be obtained at Grand Forks College. Board at cost. Write at once for catalogue.

Frank E. Dudley was down from Bemidji last Monday purchasing cattle for his market at Bemidji.

Ladies! remember when you want a nobby looking hat, to call at Bakke & Kent's Millinery parlors.

The Fosston Creamery Association expect to put a feed mill in connection with their creamery this winter.

E. O. Barnes accompanied J. Adam Ede and the several county nominees to Lengby today, where they had a rousing meeting.

Why pay 10 cents for a cigar you when you buy one for 5 cents that will suit you. Try the "Pontilla" and be convinced.

There will undoubtedly be logging one once more this winter on Red Lake and White Earth reservations by the Indians. Agent Mercer will have control over such operations.

Look over the premium lists of the fair to be held here next week and see if you do not have something you can exhibit for a prize.

When you are born the Creator starts you going and you go a long time, if you grease the main-spring of life with Rocky Mountain Tea. Great lubricator - P. M. Mark.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

is a food medicine for the baby that is thin and not well nourished and for the mother whose milk does not nourish the baby. It is equally good for the boy or girl who is thin and pale and not well nourished by their food; also for the anemic or consumptive adult that is losing flesh and strength. In fact, for all conditions of wasting, it is the food medicine that will nourish and build up the body and give new life and energy when all other means fail. Should be taken in summer as well as winter. 50c. and $1.00, all druggists. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

Notes on Last Night's Rally.

A number of Lengby Republicans were present, including W. L. Hilliard, O. K. Ringstad, A. J. Olson.

G. A. E. Finlayson, candidate for county attorney, is an able man in every way and does credit to the ticket.

The distributing of those dodgers about town yesterday before the meeting was a typical piece of fusion electioneering.

Among those who were present from McIntosh were John Peterson, Republican candidate for county auditor, Truman West, A. Love and T. Oystad.

Sam Sorensen was evidently "riled" at the speakers of last evening. Reminds one of '96 to see him out today talking politics in his old way. But then, we all knew that he is not really serious about it.

This morning the party left for the east. J. Adam Ede to speak at Lengby and Congressman Eddy at Bagley. Tonight they hold a rally at East Grand Forks, where extensive preparations are being made for these noted speakers.

Andrew Opheim of Fertile and Gunder Krostue of Fisher, candidates for the legislature, were also present yesterday and this morning. They are certainly representative men of the county and will receive their quota of the vote from this portion of the county.

O. Osmondson, of Mallory, who is candidate for the caretaking of Polk county's money bags, was among those who paid Fosston a visit yesterday. Mr. Osmondson is a wealthy farmer in the western part of the county, prudent and honorable in his private affairs, at the same time he is fully capable of creditably filling the important position to which he aspires.

One of the most prominent and best looking candidates that were here was Ed. J. Sullivan, of East Grand Forks, who is the promising candidate for sheriff of this county. Mr. Sullivan has lived in Polk county for the 24 years, having farmed in the western portion of the county most of the time. He is now engaged in farm implement business and is a respected resident of his city. The town of Sullivan is named after his family who own a considerable tract of productive farm land therein, they being among the first settlers. Some people connect Mr. Sullivan with Dan Sullivan, the saloon man, of East Grand Forks, but the candidate for sheriff is not related to him in any way and such statements are malicious lies. He is a respected citizen of his home city and has always borne a high character. His ability to fill the office of sheriff is unquestioned by any party.

B. S. Bennett went east this morning with Hon. Frank M. Eddy as far as Bagley, where Congressman Eddy was greeted by a great gathering of Beltrami county citizens, who were favored with a strong Republican address.

Clifford Phibbs came down from the banks of the Clearwater last Monday to trade "a few," returning home Tuesday, taking with him a load of lumber for a neighbor, Andrew Johnson, who is building himself a new house.

On Tuesday of this week the firm of Anderson & Peterson was dissolved, as will be seen by notice in another column. Mr. Peterson returns to his old home at Ulen and Mr. Anderson takes sole charge of the business, and invites the public patronage.

J. E. Campbell, L. Soderberg, Z. N. Steele, E. H. Bridger and M. Stafford who went to St. Paul Sunday last, returned today. Mr. Soderberg acquired a reputation as a detective when he rescued his overcoat, and Milford acquired a "rubber neck" on account of the tall buildings, that is liable to stay by him for some time.

The Grand Forks College will open October 15th. Thorough courses are offered in the academic, college preparatory, normal, and commercial branches and in music. The building is solid brick, in thorough repair, with steam heat, filtered city water, bathrooms, and modern furnishings. It is the intention to make it one of the best schools of its kind in the West. Expenses will be made as low as possible. Good board will be furnished at actual cost. Write for catalogue to K. A. Kasberg, principal, Grand Forks, North Dakota.

Crookston College.
 Will open its fall term Sept. 16. Board and room furnished and taken care of in private family or hotel for $2.50 to $3 per week. Send for catalogue. Address, J. C. SATEREE, Crookston, Minn.

No Right To Ugliness.
 The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a charming woman of a run down invalid. Only 50 cents at P. M. Mark's drug store.

On Monday afternoon the earthly remains of Bertha, the nine year old daughter of our esteemed merchant, I. O. Braut, were laid to rest in the Synod cemetery, amidst the grief of relatives and numerous young friends. She breathed her last on Saturday morning, surrounded by the family, after a short illness. The funeral took place from the Synod church at three o'clock Monday afternoon. The church was draped for the occasion and floral tributes to the departed were laid upon the coffin by loving friends. Rev. Sather preached a touching sermon over the remains, after which they were escorted to their last resting place. Although but young in years, Bertha Brandt was beloved by a large number of friends. Her kindly ways and gentle disposition making her a favorite amongst her schoolmates, and the sympathy of the entire village goes to the bereaved parents.
