LENGBY NEWS.

Lengby, Oct. 11.—Mrs. A. J. Olson is visiting friends in Fosston and Brandsvold this week.

Henry Hinden, the carpenter, is putting the finishing touches on O Fredrickson's residence.

G. L. Scott is doing business in this vicinity today.

The burning of the third kiln at the brick yard was finished yesterday.

About a car load of the faithful will attend a political meeting at Fosston tonight.

We forgot to mention in our last letter the arrival of a young man at J. Stave's who will answer to the name of Willie Randolph.

A meeting was to have been held last Saturday night for the purpose of organizing a Bryan club—but the rain washed it out.

G. L. Scott, of Fosston, was visiting Mr. Cartwright last Sunday.

Julia Lillo left for Crookston yesterday.

Ole Lenberg, W. L. Hilliard and Mrs. M. Larson were on the sick list the past week.

Swan B. Peterson lost five head of cattle by the railroad this week.

A. J. Saterstrom has a crew of men at work laying the foundation for his residence.

The ladies' aid society met with Mrs. O. M. Olson yesterday.

Mrs. N. O. Nelson returned yesterday from a visit with friends at Fosston and Brandsvold.

One of the largest political gatherings ever held in Columbia was held here last night. Quite a number of Fosstonites were present, among whom were J. E. Campbell, S. S. Stadsvold, E. O. Barnes, John Yeoman, I. I. Hillestad, John Lohn, E. H. Bridger, Lewis Lohn, John Hillestad and B. S. Bennett, also G. Krotue of Fisher, republican candidate for the legislature. Before eight o'clock every seat was taken. Promptly at eight the meeting was called to order and Captain Nelson was introduced, who held the audience in rapt attention for nearly two hours with his elegant address on the issues of the campaign from the republican standpoint, which was frequently applauded. Lieutenant Bennett, of Fosston, who followed Mr. Nelson, spoke for over an hour, giving the most of his attention to county politics. It was eleven o'clock before the meeting adjourned, everyone being pleased with the meeting. W. K. Cartwright was present and took notes from which he proposes to answer the argument of Capt. Nelson and announces that he will do so Saturday night. Meeting to commence at 8 o'clock.

Your blood goes through your body with jumps and bounds, carrying warmth and active life to every part of your body, if you take Rocky Mountain Tea.—P. M. Mark.

The Doctor's Answer.

What causes paleness and weakness? It is lack of iron in the blood and whenever iron is wanted in the system, weakness is always the result. Now to those who are pale, weak and languid, we say, try H. W. Barker's Iron Compound. It is the strongest and best iron preparation known to medical science. 50 cents at P. M. Mark.
