

MEN WHO HAVE DESERTED BRYAN FOR MCKINLEY

General E. M. Rosser, Virginia, ex-confederate. Sound money.
 Ex-Mayor Abram S. Hewitt, of New York, formerly Congressman. Wants stable money system.
 Melville E. Ingalls, President "Big Four" Railroad. Wants a continuance of prosperity and sound money.
 William R. Grace, ex-Mayor of New York, one of the leading merchants of America. Sound money and expansion.
 Charles S. Fairchild, New York, ex-Secretary of the Treasury under President Cleveland. For sound money.
 General Daniel E. Sickles, soldier, ex-Congressman, New York. "The flag now floats, and will never cease to float, over the islands in the Atlantic and Pacific. No man will ever see it come down."

Judge W. B. Hornblower, the eminent attorney, New York. Nominated for Supreme Court bench of the United States by President Cleveland. Afraid of Bryanism in all its branches.
 James M. Beck, United States District Attorney of Pennsylvania—A man is of that party with which he sympathizes, whatever he may call himself. If, therefore, one believes in free silver and in hauling down the American flag in the Philippines, he is a Democrat; but if he believes in honest money and in the supremacy of the flag in our territorial possessions, he is a Republican. Between these I had no hesitation in choosing. I am no longer a Democrat; I am a Republican.
 William T. Baker, leading business man, ex-President of Board of Trade, Chicago. Prosperity, sound money, and believes in supporting the administration.
 General E. S. Bragg, Wisconsin. No use for Bryanism.

General John Gill, of Baltimore, Md., president of the Mercantile Trust and Deposit company, and a well-known Democrat in that section: "How can sound money Democrats and reputable citizens join in supporting this candidate (Bryan)?"
 Alonzo B. Colt, business man and late Colonel Fourth Ohio, which participated in the Porto Rico campaign. "The flag will never be hauled down at dictation from foreign or domestic foes, nor will its protection be removed, if needed, by a man or woman, white, black or yellow, over whom it floats."
 Ex-Mayor E. B. Pond of San Francisco. Democratic candidate for Governor of California, 1890. Sound money and expansion.
 Roswell Miller, chairman of the board of directors, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad. "If Bryan were elected there would be woeful times in this country."

General reasons for non-support of Bryan by the above named are opposition to his populist tendencies and his anti-expansion ideas.

Bushrode Wilcox, German Democratic Farmer, Pana, Ill. I have never voted the Republican ticket in my life, but, with my four sons, who have always been Democrats, I will vote for McKinley this fall.
 William Bowerdock, cattle shipper, Christian County, Illinois. I have renounced Bryanism and the Democratic party and intend to take the stump for the whole Republican ticket.
 Owen Scott, Decatur, Ill., ex-Democratic Congressman, Bloomington District. I supported General Palmer four years ago, but as a Gold Democrat. The only course open to me this year is to vote for McKinley.
 Editor Donald of the Volksblatt, Rock Island, Ill. I have been a Democrat for years and worked hard for Bryan in 1896. I was one of the speakers at the pro-Bryan mass meeting in Chicago last spring. I have given the questions involved in this campaign careful thought and will support McKinley and the whole Republican ticket.
 Dr. Jules Kohl, prominent surgeon, ex-member State Board of Health under Altgeld, St. Clair County, Illinois. I am opposed to 16 to 1 and the cry about militarism.
 George Crosby, Belleville, Ill., farmer. I am opposed to the socialistic tendencies of the Democratic party.
 Louis Kuntz, T. Buehner, Conrad Witte, Ralph Martin, all of Chicago and all German Democrats. We are for McKinley because he is opposed to 16 to 1.
 Carl Zwanzig, owner of the Volks Blatt, Ottawa, Ill. I am in favor of expansion.
 Judge George W. Wall, Duquoin, Ill., former Judge of the Appellate Court of the Third Judicial District, and two sons. We cannot stand for the money plank of Bryanism.
 William K. Murphy, Pinckneyville, Ill., ex-State Senator, former internal-revenue collector, Cairo District, under Cleveland. I am opposed to the money plank of the Democratic platform.
 Marshall J. Browning, Sparta, Ill., coal operator. The money plank of Bryanism is not to my belief.
 James E. Miller, Lincoln, Ill., prominent lawyer. I am bitterly against free silver and strongly in favor of the continuance of the McKinley administration.
 Edward Willasey, Kansas, Edgar County, Ill., prominent Jewish merchant. I am against free silver, race favoritism in the gubernatorial campaign, and for McKinley's protective administration.
 W. L. Mitchell, Chicago, Ill., map publisher. I have voted for nine Democratic Presidential candidates, but cannot vote for Bryanism, anarchism, socialism, Populism or 16 to 1.
 R. V. Helm, Murdock, Ill. I voted for Bryan in 1896, but Democracy no longer has any charms for me.
 Dick Damon, Hancock County, Illinois, stock dealer. It is better to be a patriot than a partisan, and I can no longer follow the precepts of a party that always goes "agin" the government. McKinley's foreign policy is the correct one, and I, with my two sons, will vote for him.
 C. P. Elders, Cartersville, Ill. I voted for Bryan in 1896, but am against him now, and have accepted the presidency of the McKinley-Yates Club at Cartersville.
 Patrick J. White, Pana, Ill., prominent Irish-American. I never voted the Republican ticket in my life, neither did my father, but this time the whole family, consisting of four sons, my father and myself, will vote the straight Republican ticket from top to bottom.
 Charles Fowler, Watska, Ill., life-long Democrat and four years ago a Palmer man. I have always been a Democrat, but I want good, honest money, the stars and stripes to be maintained, the wheels of prosperity to keep whirling round, and our laboring classes to have plenty of work; with my whole family, I am therefore for McKinley.

O. P. Arthur, Aledo, Ill., life-long Democrat, former publisher of the Democratic organ of Mercer County. I am for the Republican ticket. I have just returned from Colorado, where I edited a Democratic paper for three years. McKinley will carry Colorado, the slump from Democracy being very heavy.
 W. S. Campbell, Springfield, Ill., former Assistant Adjutant-General under Altgeld. We have organized a Republican club with 100 charter members, all former Democrats, of which I am secretary. There are 1,600 British-Americans in Sangamon County, and 90 per cent of them will vote the Republican ticket this fall.
 Jesse H. Donnell, Moweaqua, Ill. I have always been a Democrat, but I am for McKinley and Yates, and I know of twenty Democratic friends and neighbors who have also changed.
 Logan Combs, Marion County, Illinois, sheep raiser, life-long Democrat. In 1896 I received 11 cents per pound for my wool, while in 1900 I received 22 cents for it, so why should I not support McKinley when it is of such great advantage to the farmers to do so?
 Chris Schaeffer, Salem, Ill., old soldier, life-long Democrat. The McKinley policy is the only true American policy.
 James Foster, elected Constable on the Democratic ticket at Salem, Ill., two years ago. I have always been a Democrat, but will this year support McKinley.
 Clem Greene, Samuel Smith, prominent farmers, Onarga, Marion County, Ill. We were supporters of Bryan in 1896, but are for McKinley and the entire Republican ticket this year because of the good McKinley times.
 Charles Missellbrook, farmer, Saline County, Illinois. I am a Democrat, but the times are good enough for me and I do not desire a change.
 Ex-Judge John L. Hunt, leader of the Democratic silver forces of Georgia and the originator of the state silver conventions in 1896, which anticipated and controlled the action of the Democratic State Convention, has come out in violent opposition to the present campaign of William Jennings Bryan for the presidency. Expansion and national honor are the reasons.
 Dr. C. W. Matthews, physician, Cass County, Ill.
 E. Ellery Anderson, New York. Sound money.
 William J. Jordan, banker central Illinois, and a leading Democrat.
 John A. Gillespie, farmer, Keyesport, Ill. Prosperity.
 W. S. Wilson, former Superintendent of the Illinois Central at Pinckneyville, Ill.
 J. L. James, Superintendent of the County Home, Salem, Ill.
 O. A. James, Salem, Ill.
 George Tubbs, Salem, Ill.
 J. T. Davis, Salem, Ill.
 Henry Vursells, Salem, Ill.
 John J. Hopkins, former Democratic Supervisor, Salem, Ill.
 R. S. Hopkins, Salem, Ill.
 C. E. Minor, Omega, Ill.
 Thomas M. Smith, Salem, Ill.
 E. H. Boyd and sons, Kinmundy, Ill.
 A. F. Tibbetts of Newsgay, Mich., who ran for Congress in 1896, declares that he is an expansionist and that he leaves the Democratic party because of its unpatriotic attitude and its inconsistency upon trusts and other issues.
 Richard Wedekind, twice Mayor of Raymond, Ill. Prosperity.
 A. B. Provine, Populist, Healdsburg, Cal. Favors expansion and upholding authority in the Philippines.
 Captain A. L. Delcambre, a well-known Democrat of Westchester County, has announced that he cannot support Bryan and the Kansas City platform. Captain Delcambre has a son who served in Cuba with the 71st Regiment. He believes in expansion and in letting the flag fly in the Philippines.
 Hambleton & Co., bankers, Baltimore, Md. No free silver.

S. S. Harpe, Philadelphia, Pa., manager of the Bed Rock Dredging Co. Bryan's election would unsettle business.
 H. H. Grace of Wisconsin, Democratic candidate for Mayor of West Superior two years ago.
 Frank Jones, a leading Democrat of New Hampshire and a large contributor to Democratic campaign funds.
 The Rev. P. M. Nystrom of Iowa, who stumped against the Swedes in South Dakota and Nebraska four years ago.
 C. J. C. Wear, Poplar Bluff, Mo., prominent for years in Missouri Democratic politics.
 Gen. D. N. McIntyre, former Attorney-General of Missouri and an ex-confederate soldier.
 On the Massachusetts list are: Charles Francis Adams, Alpheus S. Hardy; John T. Wheeburg, former manager of Governor Russell's campaign; Henry W. Lamb, President of the New England Free Trade League; Charles A. Conard, once a Democratic candidate for Congress.
 Col. R. E. Anderson of Hannibal, Mo., a life-long Democrat. Wants the American flag to stay where it is.
 James Nolan, farmer, 72 years of age, Old Ripley Township, Bond County, Illinois. "Under the last Democratic administration I fed two or three tramps every day and sometimes even more than that. Now I have not seen a tramp since the Democrats went out of power, and if you fellows are smart enough to keep the tramps away I'm going with you this time."

Twenty-seven members of the Nichols family, Burlington Junction, Mo.
 A. R. Haughawout, Webb City, Mo. Sound money.
 John T. Grow, prominent attorney, New York. "I shall not support William J. Bryan this Presidential year, nor can I in any respect sustain the declaration of anti-imperialism, anti-expansion and anti-militarism, contained in the Bryan Kansas City Democratic platform; they are bogies to frighten the timid voters."
 George W. Rutherford, Populist, Salem, Ill. Is convinced that America does not need 45-cent dollars.
 Col. M. M. Price, Populist, Woonsocket, S. D. Prosperity.
 Frank Kimler, Leroy, Ill., a life-long Democrat. Prosperity and national honor.
 Thomas M. Smith, grain and implement dealer, Kinmundy, Ill. McKinley's election is for the best interests of the people.
 General Ferdinand C. Latrobe, old-line Democrat, Baltimore, Md. Served several terms as Mayor of the city. No use for Bryanism.
 Gustav H. Schwab, agent North German Lloyd Steamship Company, New York. Sound money.
 Judge E. P. Wheeler, New York. Sound money.
 Judge W. H. Peckham, New York. Sound money.
 Henry Apthorp, Ashtabula, O., and formerly Democratic railroad commissioner and member of the Ohio legislature. Cannot stand the Kansas City platform. Resigned as a Democratic member of the railroad board.

W. W. Bryan, Populist and farmer, Waco, Mo., a distant relative of William Jennings Bryan. Prosperity.
 John Barkley, Populist, Smithfield, Mo. Expansion.
 Hon. F. J. McDowell, Populist, Smithfield, Mo. Expansion.
 John Lochin, road commissioner, Carl Junction, Mo. Prosperity.
 Judge J. P. de Mattos, New Whatcom, Wash., formerly Mayor and member of the legislature. Expansion and prosperity.
 L. J. Callinan, Michigan. All of Mr. Bryan's predictions of 1896 were false. He has opened a second battle on prosperity.
 Gundlach family, about 30 votes, Bellville, Ill.
 Samuel Brown, farmer, Old Ripley Township, Bond County, Ill. Prosperity.
 Richard A. Montgomery, a prominent attorney of Lansing, Mich., has come over to the Republican party since four years ago, and was a delegate to the Michigan state convention.
 Hon. Allen B. Morse, of Ionia, Mich., who was a Gold-Democrat in '96, is an out-and-out McKinley man now and will make speeches for McKinley during the campaign. Morse was formerly Chief Justice of the Michigan Supreme Court, having been elected as a Democrat, and in 1892 was the Democratic candidate for Governor.
 Charles H. O'Donald, of Clare, Mich., a prominent shingle manufacturer, supported Bryan four years ago, but now says that the Republicans have demonstrated the truth of their claims in 1896, and that he wants no change; so will vote for McKinley.
 Captain John W. Toler, Carbondale, Ill., postmaster under President Cleveland.
 B. A. Jamison, of Sensmont, Md., Democratic candidate for Congress in the Fifth Maryland District in 1896. "Bryan's evasion of the money question convinces me that either he has ceased to believe in 16 to 1, or else is afraid to preach that doctrine because of the belief that it would hurt his chances of election. My confidence in him as a leader and as a sincere man is gone."
 Hon. T. C. Early, prominent lawyer and old-line Democrat, Cripple Creek, Colo. "President McKinley's eminent services as a soldier, statesman and President of the United States commend him most favorably to the people and a change would create panic and work disaster."
 S. S. Blum, merchant, Deadwood, S. D. "I voted for Bryan in 1896. He made us believe this free silver remedy was the proper thing for the bad times. Well, we have had splendid times since McKinley was elected, and I have come to believe that Mr. Bryan is an unscrupulous politician, ambitious for his personal ends and nothing else."
 General W. H. Hardin, Owensboro, Ky. Will support the Republican candidate for Governor, Goebellism.
 John A. Gillespie, farmer, Keyesport, Ill. Prosperity.
 Joseph Morwitz, president of the German Democrat Publishing Company, of Philadelphia. "From the information I have been able to obtain as to the attitude of the German Americans in New York, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Louis, all centers in which not only their votes, but their influence will be very strong and possibly decisive, I believe that it is overwhelmingly against Bryan."
 W. C. Stripling, a dry goods merchant of Fort Worth, Tex. "Bryan is pledged to free silver, but nobody in our country believes he will touch it, and few want it."
 Judge W. W. Gatewood, Carlsbad, N. M. Favors expansion. Imperialism is a bug-a-boo. Wants sound money.
 Colonel Gentry, member of the staff of the Democratic Governor of Kentucky. McKinley's administration has been a success.

John W. Sullivan, member of the Democratic county central committee, San Jose, Cal. "We have been sitting for fifty years on the extreme western edge of American commercial and general business development. We have felt the effect thereof in a slow rate of growth and a minor influence in the councils of the Union. It is a notorious fact that California has been rated as 'small potatoes and few in the hill' in the busy East. Pacific and Oriental Expansion will change all that. It is the interest of every Californian, of whatever political faith, to stand in with the policy of Pacific and Oriental Expansion. And I very much mistake the temper of our people if they do not take that view of the case."
 Police Judge Frank Freer, Fort Smith, Ark. "I don't like Bryan's policy. As for those islands over there, we've got 'em and ought to keep 'em. Yes, gentlemen, if I were a young man I'd vote the Republican ticket." Has since said he "felt like a young man."
 James E. Miller, prominent attorney Lincoln, Ill., formerly master in chancery under Democratic regime. Wants no change of policy at home or abroad.
 Louis H. Breker, prominent Democrat of St. Charles, Mo. "The moment the Democratic party condemned President McKinley for what its leaders style his 'imperialistic' policy, that moment I decided that they ceased to be fair-minded and patriotic citizens."
 L. L. Rubel, of Bridgeford & Co., stove founders, Louisville, Ky. Objects to the control of the minority politicians who rule by Goebellism.
 Wilson Alpersen, silver mine owner, Spokane, Wash. The free silver sentiment of Washington has been on its deathbed for four years. We know what expansion is to the Pacific coast, and we are for it."
 Charlatan Lewis, editor New York Evening Post. Is an anti-expansionist, but will vote for McKinley on the money issue.
 The Grabenkrieger family, 12 votes, Nashville, Ill. Sound money.
 J. W. Hanford, formerly a traveling man, at present merchant, Carbondale, Ill.
 Judge W. P. Lightfoot, police justice, Carbondale, Ill.
 Edward K. Porter, druggist and schoolmaster of Bryan, Carbondale, Ill.
 Charles Thomas, blacksmith, Carbondale, Ill.
 J. H. Thomas, ex-Collector of the Port, Annapolis, Md. Opposed to 16 to 1.
 C. F. Gunther, ex-alderman and prominent candy manufacturer, Chicago. Let well enough alone. The people are buying quantities of luxuries they could not formerly afford.
 J. L. Babler, El Dorado Springs, Mo., old-line Democrat. "The gold standard has had the opposite effect from what Bryan predicted. Everybody is prosperous."
 R. Mabry, Altamont, Ill. Prosperity, and against "isms."
 William Soaps, Altamont, Ill. Prosperity.
 Judge J. C. Mitchell, leading attorney, Ottumwa, Ill. For expansion. Says, "Imperialism? It is rhetorical babble—sheet-iron thunder, noisy, but not dangerous."
 John W. Overstreet, attorney, Macon, Ga. Sound money.
 J. W. Baugh, agent Adams Express Co., Mt. Vernon, Ill. Prosperity.
 Harry Bramble, late sergeant Co. H, Forty-second United States Volunteers, Watertown, S. D. Expansion issue.
 John L. Hopkins, merchant, Carter, Ill. Prosperity.
 Geo. W. Tubbs, Salem, Ill.
 Horace F. Temple, proprietor Republican, West Chester, Pa.
 W. R. Curran, county judge, Pekin, Ill.
 Prof. S. S. Hamill, Bryan's teacher of elocution, Salem, Ill.
