A. R. Holston passed through on the train Wednesday on his way home to Crookston. He had been doing a little democratic work out at Bemidji, Solway and Shevlin.

W. R. Spears, the well known pioneer Redlake merchant, was in Fosston last Saturday on business. He also brought the sad news of the death of his eldest child, Flossie Mabel, who died Oct. 18th, from typhoid fever. Flossie Mabel was nine years of age and a favorite with her playmates and parents, the latter being sadly grieved over their loss of a sweet loving child. Strange to say, the teacher of the department of the school which the deceased attended, and with whom she was a particular favorite, Sister Cecelia, was taken away by the same disease four days latter, the remains being taken through Fosston on their way to St. John's for interment. Mr. and Mrs. Spears have the sincere sympathy of their Fosston friends in their bereavement.

A stranger driving into town Tuesday evening had a narrow escape from losing a good horse. He came in from the west with a team of horses behind his wagon as well as in front. On passing between the two holes dug in the street, in front of the new hospital, for the purpose of making connections with the water mains, one of the horses became frightened, slid to the right, too far and tumbled into the hole. It took two hours hard work to get the poor animal out again, the ditch being so close a fit that the horse could not be moved until by digging down one side it was widened.

A Life and Death Fight.

Mr. W. A. Hines of Manchors, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble" which ended in Consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5.00 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at P. M. Mark's drug store.

Notice.

The public is hereby notified that my son, Erick Aspelund, left his home about June 25th, 1900, and that I shall not hold myself responsible for debts of any kind contracted by him after this date.

Brager—Hanson.

Mr. O. Brager, of the Bank of Fosston, has been kept busy since yesterday afternoon receiving congratulations from his many Fosston friends upon the important step in life that he has recently taken. THE THIRTEEN TOWNS unites with them in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Brager all happiness and prosperity, and a long residence among us. The McIntosh Tribune gives the following account of the wedding which occurred at that place:

"At the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Hanson, at 11 o'clock Wednesday, occurred the marriage in our city of one of the popular young ladies of this place—Miss Annie Hanson to Oswald Brager. Mr. Brager is and has for some time been employed in the Bank of Fosston, at Fosston, and is well liked by all who know him. After the ceremony an elegant dinner was prepared. About thirty guests were present and Mr. and Mrs. Brager were the recipients of many costly and useful presents showing the high esteem in which both were held. The happy couple will leave for Fosston today where they will make their future home."

Hallow'en passed very pleasantly at the party given by Miss Hattie Olson. The rooms were decorated with autumn leaves and cranberry strings. The electric lights had turned shades and jack o'lanterns were here and there. Guests were met at the gate by a ghost. All found by blowing candle out the number of years before they would be wed. Boys, by going down cellar backwards with mirror and lighted candle, found the face of their partner. This was real, as the girls had been hidden down cellar beforehand. By walnuts wrapped in tin foil, when they would wed, and the one that got "When Bryan is elected," thought he had a long time to wait. By the color of candles each learned some characteristic of his or hers, and Miss Paulsrud's candle going out first, decided she would marry first. By bobbing and spearing for apples, each found name of future spouse. Miss Amber found the thimble, Miss Hitter the ring, Mr. Stafford the penny, Mr. Nical found ring in flour. Concealed in walnuts were personal hits with names on each. These were read. And as the company went home they were given an egg shell filled with salt with the injunction, "Eat this and the one you dream of is the right one. All voted Miss Olson a capital entertainer.

When Not to Drink.

The times when a man should not drink "Golden Grain Belt" beer are so very few and far between that they needn't be mentioned. Drink it in the morning, drink it at the table, drink it on going to bed, drink it when you are hot and when you are cold, when you are wet and when you are dry. It does you good by aiding the nutrition and strengthening the digestion; made of pure barley malt and hops, by the Minneapolis Brewing Company and sold in Crookston by Alex Thompson.

To Cure a Cold in One Day
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Another Word to the Ladies.

THE THIRTEEN TOWNS understands there are still a few ladies in Fosston and vicinity who did not take advantage of our recent offer to send an elegant silverplated sugar shell absolutely free of charge to any married lady who would simply ask for it, so we will renew the offer for a short time only. We sell these shells regularly at forty cents each. Retail jewelers ask fifty to seventy-five cents for such goods. They are exquisitely beautiful creations in high grade silver plate. To further advertise our ware we will send one, postpaid, to every married lady who has not received one. This announcement should be cut out and returned to us with your request. (This is important.) Also please enclose a stamp or two to help pay cost of mailing. Quaker Valley Mfg. Co., Morgan and Harrison Sts., Chicago.
