"Low Church" and "High Church" Episcopalian Breach.

Oshkosh, Wis., Nov. 23.—The secession of Trinity Episcopal church of this city, the largest Episcopal church in the diocese of Fond du Lac, and splitting up the diocese, seems imminent and inevitable. Trinity is "low church," and Bishop Grafton, at the head of the diocese, is extremely "high church." Through his personal influence practically all the churches in the diocese, outside of Trinity, have adopted the ritual and vestments. Trinity has steadfastly refused, and the result has been a breach ever widening between the bishop and the church. Matters were brought to a climax by the extreme ritualism of Coadjutor Bishop Weller at Fond du Lac last week. The ceremonies were so nearly like those of the Roman Catholic church that few could tell the difference.

Arrangements have practically been completed whereby the Chicago Great Western road will extend its line three blocks into the business portion of Red Wing, and then erect a large modern depot.

The largest cargo of hard coal ever brought up the lakes is en route to Duluth on the steamer Edeborn—7,680 net tons. This is the way coal companies feel about the winter supply, and receipts will probably be large during November.

There is a grocers' war on at Duluth, and granulated sugar is selling at the rate of twenty-two pounds for $1. Some grocers have left the local combine, or retail grocers' trust, which has heretofore regulated the price of staples to consumers.

Burglars entered Peter Ruebeck's saloon at Red Wing and secured about $4 in money and some cigars. An attempt was made to enter Adler & Schacht's clothing store also. There have been a number of petty burglaries in Red Wing lately.

Hotel Jobs, Reickert's shoe store, and the One-Minute Lunch house at Luverne, were gutted by fire. The entire contents of the hotel were burned. The Jobs family barely escaping with their lives. The loss is about $5,000; partially insured. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Hog cholera has destroyed a great many hogs in Scott county. Many of the farmers think that it is not hog cholera, for the reason that they have operated upon some, and found that from their throat to their lungs it is red and sore, resembling a disease similar to diphtheria, and that their skin becomes pink. The hogs are sick but a few hours before death.

Just how much binder twine will be manufactured at the state prison the coming season is a question that can not be answered at present, and one which depends largely upon circumstances. Manila and fiber prices are soaring skyward by reason of the fact that a pool has secured control of nearly all the fiber produced in the Philippine Islands, estimated at 250,000 bales. New York prices are controlled by the pool, and Manila can not be touched for much less than 10 cents a pound. The state, fortunately, secured its fiber at a low price, and will have enough to keep the factory at the prison busy for some time, but it is by no means enough to keep all the machinery running until the twine season opens next summer.

Crane, deacon of the church, be prosecuted.

THIRTY-THIRD ANNUAL Meeting of the Minnesota State Horticultural Society.

The Minnesota State Horticultural society will hold its thirty-third annual meeting Dec. 4, 5, 6 and 7, at Plymouth church, Minneapolis.

Forestry association, the Minnesota society's auxiliary will meet in the same building on the same days. There will be a fine fruit exhibit in the lecture rooms of the church. It is expected that representatives of societies in the adjoining states will meet with the Minnesota society, and horticulturists of note will add to the interest of the gathering. Among these will be Prof. N. E. Hansen of the South Dakota agricultural college, Prof. C. B. Waldron of the North Dakota agricultural college, Prof. E. S. Goff of the Wisconsin agricultural college, C. G. Watten of Charles City, Iowa; President C. F. Gardner of the Iowa Horticultural society, C. L. Waterous, president of the American Pomological society, and J. S. Trigg of Rockford, Iowa.

Hotel Vendome, 21 South Fourth street, will be the headquarters for visiting members.

Some of the subjects to be considered are: "Manipulation of the Soil as a Protection Against Drouth and Winter-killing," "The Campbell System of Overcoming Drouth," "Irrigation in the Minnesota Garden and Orchard," "Rotation of Crops on the Fruit Farm," and "Propagation of Plants."

MINNESOTA GAINS TWO.

Probable Reapportionment for Congress.

If precedents in recent years are followed, the membership of the next house will be 385. This is an increase of twenty-eight over the present membership, and will tax the capacity of the hall of representatives until the scheme of using benches instead of desks is adopted.

The lowest possible membership of the house which would produce a ratio sufficiently low to prevent reduction of the delegation from any state would be 384 members. Taking the present population of the United States at 74,672,907, as announced in the preliminary figures of the census office, the ratio of representation would be 194,344. While this is the lowest figure possible to prevent a loss in any state, when the representation is worked out on the basis of that ratio and a representative is allowed for every major fraction, the total membership of the house would be one more, or 385.

Unless the customs in congress, therefore, are entirely ignored, the membership of the next house will be 385 instead of 387, as at present. Figured out on this basis Illinois and New York would each lead in the increase with three additional members each, while Minnesota, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Texas would each gain two congressmen.

BIG PRICE FOR TIMBER.

State Sale Realizes an Estimated Total of $460,000.

Figures which are being compiled by State Auditor R. C. Dunn show that the stumpage disposed of at state timber sale brought an average price of $5.75 a thousand, twice as much as at the similar sale two years ago. The aggregate of the timber disposed of is close to 80,000,000 feet, and the total realized on the sale will reach about $460,000.

The 25 per cent deposit required at the time of the sale has been nearly $100,000, the exact figures being yet unobtainable. Of the total amount realized, four-fifths will go into the permanent school fund.

MANY WERE INJURED.

The state labor commissioner has completed his report in regard to accidents which have occurred during the past two years.

During 1899 there were 45 fatal accidents and 672 non-fatal. For ten months of 1900 there were 71 fatal and 578 non-fatal accidents.

The report shows that nearly 12,000 workmen in Minnesota out of 37,711 are compelled to work on Sundays.

Muscatine (Iowa) lumbermen are consummating a deal whereby they will acquire 210,000,000 feet of pine north of Duluth. The pine is owned by Cook & Turritt, the Duluth pine land men, who are behind the great project of ridding logs from the Rainy river country on the Canadian border to Stillwater. The 210,000,000 feet in question will be railed through Duluth to Stillwater. The thence by river to Muscatine.

The deal involves about $70,000. W. P. Wheelhan of Needah, Wis., has sold 60,000,000 feet of pine in La Crosse county to Alger, Smith & Co. for $200,000.

A Noted Knight Templar Owes His Health to Peruna

Colonel T. P. Moody, a prominent Knight Templar, is well known in every city in the United States west of Buffalo, N. Y., as a Jeweler's Auctioneer. In the city of Chicago as a prominent lodge man, being a member of the K. T.'s and also of the Masons. The cut shows Colonel Moody in the costume of the Oriental Consistory Masons, 32d degree.

In a recent letter from 5900 Michigan avenue, Chicago, Ill., Mr. Moody says the following:

"For over twenty-five years I suffered from catarrh, and for over ten years I suffered from catarrh of the stomach terribly. I have taken all kinds of medicines and have been treated by all kinds of doctors, as thousands of my acquaintances are aware in different parts of the United States, where I have traveled, but the relief was only temporary, until a little over a year ago I started to take Peruna, and at the present time I am better than I have been for twenty years.

"The soreness has left my stomach entirely and I am free from indigestion and dyspepsia and will say to all who are troubled with catarrh or stomach trouble of any kind, don't put it off and suffer, but begin to take Peruna right away, and keep it up until you are cured, as you surely will be if you persevere."

"My wife, as many in the southwest can say, was troubled with a bad cough and bronchial trouble, and doctors all over the country gave her up to die, as they could do nothing more for her. She began taking Peruna with the result that she is better now than she has been in years, and her cough has almost left her entirely. The soreness has left her lungs and she is as well as she ever was in her life, with thanks, as she says, to Peruna. Yours very truly, T. P. Moody.

Catarrh in its various forms is rapidly becoming a general curse. An undoubted remedy has been discovered by Dr. Hartman. This remedy has been thoroughly tested during the past forty years. Prominent men have come to know of its virtues, and are making public utterances on the subject. To save the country we must save the people. To save the people we must protect them from disease. The disease that is at once the most prevalent and stubborn of cure is catarrh.

If one were to make a list of the different names that have been applied to catarrh in different locations and organs, the result would be astonishing. We have often published a partial list of these names, and the surprise caused by the first publication of it to all people, both professional and non-professional, was amusing. And yet we have never enumerated all of the diseases which are classed as catarrh. It must be confessed, however, to see even this partial list drawn up in battle array is rather appalling. If the reader desires to see this list, together with a short exposition of each one, send for our free catarrh book. Address The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

A Word About Glycerine.
Since so many people use pure glycerine for the skin, a word of caution seems necessary. If you apply a little glycerine to the tip of your tongue you will find that, although it has a pleasant, sweet taste, the first sensation that is felt is one of pain and burning. This is caused by the fact that glycerine has a strong affinity for water, and that it absorbs all the moisture from the surface which it touches, thus drying up and parching the nerves. Ignorant of this fact, nurses and mothers have applied pure glycerine to the chafed skin of infants, producing, often, great pain. The glycerine ought to have been at first mixed with an equal bulk of water. This being done, it may be applied to the most tender surfaces without producing injury, and, as it does not dry up, it virtually maintains the part in a constantly moist condition, excluding the air and promoting the healing process.
