

Steve Zorn, with his first archery kill, taken the last evening of last year’s Mills County bow season. His big eight point measured 136 B&C inches. Zorn is an 82nd Airborne veteran and was hunting on the Hamm ranch a few miles south of Goldthwaite in Mills County.

Lane Gray bagged this wide nine point buck in Mills County southeast of Goldthwaite on opening Saturday of youth weekend last season. Lane is the son of Chad Gray (his guide on this hunt) and Kim Hall. This is Lane’s first deer, and a really good one too. The buck scored 125-7/8 with 17-7/8 inch inside spread. Lane took the buck with a Ruger .204.

Jerry Smith of Georgetown killed this big buck on the Sleepy Hollow Ranch west of Goldthwaite on opening day with his 7mm Magnum rifle.

Matt Tumminia of Cedar Park bagged this big nine point buck on opening weekend of rifle season on his family’s ranch owned by his parents Don and Pam Tumminia about ten miles north of Goldthwaite just off Highway 16. Matt shot the buck at around 200 yards with his .30-06 rifle one Sunday just after sunrise last season.

Kim Cantrell poses with her step-daughter Kylee and husband Tim at the Mills County General Store. Kim bagged this big 10 point buck just east of Goldthwaite in Mills County at 7:15 in the rain on opening day with her .220 Swift at about 80 yards.
