

Goldthwaite Eagle Deer Photos

Taylor Clark, 15, of China Spring, shot this awesome 140-pound, 9-point buck during Youth Rifle Weekend. She shot the deer from her blind, with her .270, at a distance of 70 yards. She spent almost six and a half hours in the stand that day, and her hard work paid off. This deer was taken on her grandparents' ranch south of Goldthwaite. Taylor (center) pictured with her grandparents, Mick and Jo Ann Clark.

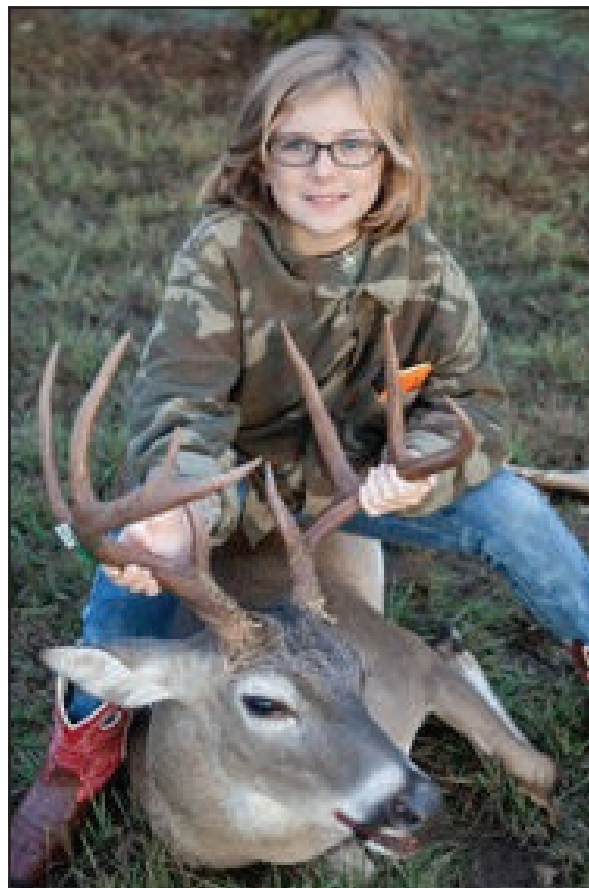

Cameron D'Albergo of New Braunfels took this nice ten point buck on the Triple 3 Ranch near Goldthwaite. Cameron was guided by his grandfather Mickey Donahoo. Cameron is the son of Stephanie and Andy D'Albergo.

Seven year-old Walt Thompson of Goldthwaite shot his first deer with his brand new .243 Rifle at 70 yards Sunday afternoon in southeast Mills County. Walt is the Son of Terry and Jennifer Thompson. Thanks, Terry Thompson

Steve Weaver bagged this eight point after sitting 10 hours one day at the RRR Ranch in Mills County. Patience pays off every time when it comes to deer hunting!

Aubrey Kelley, 9, harvested this 14.5" inside spread, nine-point buck Oct. 31 during youth season. This was her first deer. She took this buck near Center City with a .243 Winchester H&R Handi Rifle at around 90 yards with one shot.

Karen Wesson Francis of Houston harvested this buck early Nov. 25 on her lease in Western Mills County with one well-placed shot using a 100 grain soft point Winchester cartridge and her bolt action .243 M-77 Ruger rifle equipped with a 4 power Simmons scope. The buck had nine points, a wide rack and was downed at approximately 75 yards. Karen is the daughter of Ken Wesson.