nigerian dwarf goats and mini donkeys. Of course a pumpkin patch would not be complete without a hayride to the patch to choose a pumpkin, Uncle Buck's has a nice sized wagon to transport visitors to the patch and then continue around the farm and back to the entrance area. Additional varieties of pumpkins, gourds and corn shocks are also presented for purchase there.

Uncle Buck's offers a full concession with items such as: walking tacos, beef hot dogs, chips, popcorn, soda, water, hot chocolate, coffee and apple cider for sale as well as decorated sugar cookies and specialty cupcakes.

There is also a covered area with picnic tables for patrons to be able to enjoy their food, decorated benches and straw bale arrangements offer plenty of opportunities for picture-taking to commemorate the days outing. And in addition to the pumpkin patch experience, Uncle Buck's has straw bales and handy mums for sale, as well as numerous pumpkins and squash available.

As mentioned above Uncle Buck's is open each weekend through October and by appointment for schools and special groups on weekdays. For more information one may contact Uncle Buck's at either 573-759-9045 or 573-239-1757 or consult their facebook page: Uncle Buck's Pumpkin Patch, or their website: www.unclebucks-pumpkinpatch.com
