IN ALABAMA, FOOTBALL MATTERS.

Football isn't just a sport in Alabama. It's a dad watching his son score a touchdown on a Friday night. It's a house divided on Saturday, and united again on Sunday morning. From keeping our athletes on the field to providing access to the best doctors and hospitals, Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Alabama has been supporting players, fans and teams in Alabama for over 80 years.

We cover what matters.
