STORYTELLER VISITS BETHLEHEM LIBRARY — Storyteller Sharon Clarke (top center) performance at Bethlehem Branch Library on Thursday, July 20, 2017. Everyone had a wonderful time and a light refreshment followed, according to Glenda Leonard, Bethlehem Branch Manager.

BETHLEHEM LIBRARY FETES ABBY THE THERAPY DOG — Kim Hertzler with her dog, Abby (Therapy Dog), was special guest at Bethlehem Branch Library on Thursday, July 27, 2017, because it was Abby's 8th birthday. All the kids, as well as the adults, celebrated her birthday with staff at the Branch that afternoon during the "Kids Read To Abby" time. Abby got treats from the staff and kids and the kids had cupcakes, lemonade, Kool-Aid, & popcorn, which Abby enjoyed also.

Fred's recalls charcoal grills because of paint fire hazard

Fred's stores have issued a recall on certain charcoal grills sold throughout the Southeast and other states.

This recall involves Living Traditions mini barrel charcoal grills. The black steel grills measure about 18 inches by 15 inches by 18.5 inches. They have a black handle on the lid and one on each side, and at the front a heat gauge and a silver latch. Model number SXB1501 and UPC code 00000 19877 are printed on the product's packaging.

Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled product and return the grill to any Fred's Store for a full refund of the purchase price.

There are two reports of paint on the exterior of the grill igniting. No injuries or property damage have been reported.

The grills were sold at Fred's stores in: Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Illinois, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Texas from January 2017 through June 2017 for about $22. Manufacturer was Bazhou Sanxin Steel, of China.

About 2,000 units are affected by this recall.
