

Junior Fair King & Queen

Eight contestants will vie for the titles of the 2017 Wyandot County Fair King and Queen.

The pageant and coronation is set for 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 12, in the Masters Building at the Wyandot County Fairgrounds.

Bradley Chaffee, Noah Fritz-Cheney and Alec Ogg are running for the crown currently held by reigning Wyandot County Fair King Chase Wagner. Hannah Ziegler, Kylie Troxel, Madison Kessler, Mackenzie Myers and Laura Stauffer will compete for the title of Wyandot County Fair Queen, currently held by Carley Coppler.

BRADLEY CHAFFEE

BRADLEY CHAFFEE

Bradley Chaffee is the son of Glenn and Cheryl Chaffee. Bradley is a senior at Mohawk Local School. He is currently involved in band, FFA and the musical. He is also involved in 4-H and is a member of St. Pius X Church. He plans to enter the workforce as a mechanist and possibly go to college for agricultural engineering. Bradley's favorite thing about the Wyandot County Fair is the parade, show day and the hot apple dumplings with ice cream.

NOAH FRITZ-CHENEY

NOAH FRITZ-CHENEY

Noah Fritz-Cheney is the son of Jeff and Ronnie Cheney and Amanda Oldaker. Noah is a junior at Upper Sandusky High School. He is involved in FFA and assistant to the technology coordinator. He is also involved in Wharton Church of God youth group. He plans to attend University of Northwestern Ohio for diesel technology. Noah's favorite thing about the Wyandot County Fair is hanging out at the horse barn and early mornings in the Jr. Fair lunch stand.

MADISON KESSLER

MADISON KESSLER

Madison Kessler is the daughter of Lance and Nikki Kessler. She is a graduate from Carey. At Carey High School she was involved in FFA and drama club. Madison is also a 4-H camp counselor, a member of Carey Boys 4-H and is involved in Our Lady of Consolation youth group. Madison plans to go straight into the workforce. Her favorite thing about the Wyandot County Fair is seeing the faces of young kids light up when she ask them about seeing her animals.

MACKENZIE MYERS

MACKENZIE MYERS

Mackenzie Myers is the daughter of Jon and Kendra Myers. Mackenzie is a graduate of Upper Sandusky High School and is now a freshman at the Ohio State University Agriculture Technical Institute. In high school Mackenzie was a part of the varsity cross country team. She also is active in showing Quarter horses and she works at Kirby Sand and Gravel. She plans to obtain her degree in horse science and to become a certified equine dentist. Her favorite thing about the Wyandot County Fair is when she gets to show her horses that she has worked with all year and being able to show the public her horses.
