

Former Lake Worth High School Scholarship Recipients were on hand during the Million Dollar Celebration to thank the Alumni Foundation and Dollars for Scholars for the opportunity granted them when they needed it.

The Honorable Bradley C. Harper, graduated before the establishment of Lake Worth Dollars for Scholars but was the recipient of some school funding made available with money from the Flea Market.

Merideth Abrams, a 1996 graduate of Lake Worth High School also received school funding to assist her with her education. Meredith came back to teach at Lake Worth High School but has since taken a position teaching at Northgrade Elementary School in Lake Worth. Abrams said she loves every minute of it and asked her Principal Dave Cantley to forgive her for not sticking with teaching on the high school level.

Kelsey Burke, a 2006 Lake Worth High grad is now a local attorney, thanks to assistance from Dollars for Scholars. Kelsey explained she and her family lived in a tent in John Prince Park for half of her junior year at LWHS. She, with the assistance of her guidance counselor, found a family willing to rent her a room so she could finish school. She then was informed she was undocumented and had to climb that hill to continue her education and obtain a law degree.
