I talked to Sam Ella Keys January 5, she told me the wires and one room in her house burned. She did not say when. But she said she would be soon moving back to her house. The Senior Citizens' Feeding Program has a few new members. Some of our regular members have not returned for the new year. We hope they are not sick. We know Mrs. Mae Jesse Newman has been sick.

Friday morning, January 6, Mary Reed, of the Howard Bottom Community, had an accident on her way to work at Wee Care in Tchula. She was carried to the hospital for observation. I don't have any details on the accident nor Mary's condition. Please pray that she is alright.
