Mrs. Zerlina (Zett) Rowe's house burned. I don't know the exact day or date; but it was recently.

Mrs. Mae Jessie Newman returned to the senior citizens' feeding center after being sick for a while. She came for a few days. She said she hopes she will be able to come back in the future.

On Valentine's Day, Mayor Cobbins gave the seniors at the feeding center a live rose. Elder Curtis Cobbins and First Lady Margaret Cobbins gave the seniors a sweet treat bag. They said someone gave them some of the candies that were in the bag. A lady brought the seniors some homemade, big, square cupcakes. The senior citizens at the feeding center had an enjoyable time on Valentine's Day.

The Golden Age Choir members of the senior citizen's feeding center are now rehearsing at Guiding Light C.O.G.I.C. at 2:00 p.m. Saturday, February 25. The city Black History Program that will be held

Mrs. Sunil Desai underwent surgery Tuesday at a north Mississippi hospital.

Mrs. Frankie Farmer and Mr. Ed Hathcock spent time Sunday afternoon in Winona with Mrs. Keith (Lynn) Marchant and family. Lynn and son Randy are improving after recently being injured in a car accident.

Prayers are for Mrs. Edith Rucker Word. She spent time recently in a hospital and is now home but not feeling well. We miss seeing her in church, around town and hope to see her well again very soon.

Jamie and Warren Conner and children of Millington, Tennessee and Jodi and Derek May and children of Stewart visited with Joey and Jackie Hill during the weekend.

Prayers and best wishes for Mrs. C. H. (Dot) Blanton as she recovers from a recent accident.

Mrs. William (Virginia) Ingram spent time last week in Grenada with son Damon and children.

Mr. Barry Howell spent the weekend with his mother Mrs. Lee (Lucy) Howell. She hasn't been well recently but thankfully is feeling some better.

Mr. Francis Brantley of the Dallas area is a guest of Mark Underwood while visiting family and friends in the area.
