New Clinton Parkway development started the metro Jackson area's first Fuzzy's Taco restaurant. Originally started in Fort Worth, Texas, Fuzzy's Taco has undertaken a rapid expansion in recent years to one hundred fourteen stores in thirteen states.

According to Fuzzy's website, "every location will always keep the Fuzzy's promise in mind: To focus full attention on promptly and efficiently providing guests with generous helpings of uniquely flavorful foods at a fair price, in a fun atmosphere."

Special to The Clinton Courier

Rendering of the business center, showing potential future building development on the western side of the property.

that Fuzzy's Taco is extremely "involved in the communities in which they are located."

Fisher is enthusiastic about the new restaurant.

"The Fuzzy's Taco Shop franchise is new to the metro area, and Clinton will be its first location. I look forward to their menu and know the city will support a new restaurant."

Special to The Clinton Courier

Proposed elevation of the Fuzzy's Tacos location coming to the Clinton Parkway.

Developers describe Fuzzy's as a fast casual dining in the model of local favorite Newk's with "creative menu items similar to Sombra [Mexican Kitchen, of Ridgeland and Flowood]." For Clinton residents looking for a new breakfast hang-out, Fuzzy's will offer a full breakfast menu, which City officials say is one of the most requested options for Clinton diners. Outside dining will also be available for patrons of the new location on the Clinton Parkway.

Residents can also look forward to Fuzzy's active commitment to the community. Developers explained

Occupying the third building of the first phase of the project will be Drayer Physical Therapy, a new addition to the Clinton market. Drayer Physical Therapy of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, recently completed the purchase of Performance Rehab's metro area locations and is now expanding to Clinton. Drayer is expected to occupy a good portion of the 8,000 square foot building, with the potential for up to two other tenants.

According to a site plan approved by the Board of Aldermen, there is the potential for a final phase of the project to be completed "as the market dictates."
