

Sidewalk Sessions and After Hours Shopping set for March 30

Special to The Clinton Courier

The first Sidewalk Sessions of the year will be held on Thursday, March 30. The live music event features local artists and musicians scattered throughout the brick streets, with participating Olde Towne businesses staying open late for After Hours Shopping.

Clintonians are encouraged to stop by The Common Room Gallery for a gallery opening featuring photography by Molly Boyer, drawings by Michaela Fisk, and live music by Luke and JJ Campbell. James & Leigh and Ellie's of Olde Towne will be open late on Monroe Street, along with Brick Street

Pops. Lea Throgmorton of Dagnabbit will play at Paxton Peak, and The Dot Shop will host Mississippi College student Emma Reeves. Check out Isaac Sanders on the deck at Cups, and The Nostalgics on Jefferson Street in front of the Hetrick Team of Re/Max Alliance. Ollie + Rae, Wyatt Waters Gallery and Good Citizen will all be open late on Jefferson Street.

Attendees can grab a bite to eat and enjoy local talent at the late night event in Olde Towne. For more information or to participate in the Sidewalk Sessions as a musician or artist, call the Main Street Clinton office at 601-924-5472 or visit www.mainstreetclintonms.com/OTAD. The event is free to the public.

OBITUARY

Virginia Earle Presley Clinton

Virginia Earle Presley passed away February 9, 2017, at Woodlands in Clinton, Mississippi, after a lengthy illness. She was born January 11, 1942, in Vicksburg, Mississippi, to Rev. and Mrs. Earl Christian Presley. She spent her youth in various Mississippi towns as the daughter of a Methodist minister. She graduated from Clinton High School and attended Hinds Community College and Mississippi College. She will be remembered as a friendly and out-going person who loved her family, friends and animals.

She is survived by three sisters, Lillian Presley Holbrook, Shea Presley Elkins, and Billie Presley (David) Stevens, all of Clinton. Also surviving are nieces

Missy Elkins Jackson (Chris) of Philadelphia, Mississippi, and Jill Stevens Clayton (David) of Gluckstadt, Mississippi; nephews Will Elkins (Audra) of Jonesboro, Arkansas, and David Stevens, II (Mary Beth) of Clinton, Mississippi. She is also survived by great nieces Caroline Jackson, Linley White, Presley Stevens and Taylor Stevens, and great nephews Benjamin Jackson and Clayton White.

A graveside service was held at Lakewood Cemetery, with burial following.

Memorials may be made to the Mississippi Animal Rescue League, 5221 Greengate Drive Ext., Jackson, MS 39204.

The family wants to express their deep appreciation for all the loving care given by the staff of Trinity during her eight-year stay.

Dr. Joshua Massey, Optometrist

929 HWY 80 E. • 601-924-7274

Carrier
turn to the experts

*Same great service
for the last 30 years*

RUSSELL'S REFRIGERATION

Work on all makes of A/C and heating systems

Now is the time for your Spring Service Check Up.
Call today to schedule an appointment.

400 Cynthia Street • Clinton, MS 39056

601-924-2518