

Sigma Tau Delta collects books for state prisoners

Special to The Clinton Courier

Members of Sigma Tau Delta, the English honor society at Mississippi College, seek to get books in the hands of prisoners around the state. MC students with the chapter will collect books for inmates through March 24. The drive began February 1. Pictured are MC students Holly Kyzar of Brookhaven, Elizabeth Bailey of Waco, Texas, and Carolina Holbrook of Coleman, Alabama. The students were gathering books at the school cafeteria on the Clinton campus. For more information, contact the MC English Department at 601-925-3215 or stop by the department's offices at Jennings Hall to drop off books.

You may not find a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow; however, a fit and healthy body is worth its weight in gold.

Join the entire family for only $50 during the month of March!
