

CJHS parent is CPSD 2016-17 Parent of the Year

Special to The Clinton Courier

Special to The Clinton Courier

Mother of two Wendy Copeland is the Clinton Public School District's 2016-17 Parent of the Year.

Copeland received the award in a surprise presentation recently at Clinton Junior High School.

"Mrs. Copeland has been actively involved in her children's education since they started school, and she continues to play vital roles on the PTOs at CJHS and Eastside," said Dr. Phil Burchfield, superintendent of schools. "We are blessed in Clinton to have many active, engaged parents, and Mrs. Copeland is no exception."

Copeland holds bachelor's and master's degrees, both from Mississippi College. She is the assistant director and faculty member in the Health Services Administration Masters Program at MC.

She and her husband, Bob, have two children, Hardin and Sara-Anna. She currently serves as co-chair of the PTO Winter Dance committee at CJHS and as Box Tops Chair at Eastside. She served as a homeroom mom throughout her children's elementary careers.

Copeland will go on to represent CPSD in the Mississippi Parent of the Year program this spring hosted by the Mississippi Department of Education.

CPSD School Parents of the Year include:

- Clinton Park: Lindsey Howell
- Northside: Tiffany Brooks
- Eastside: Suzanne Vivier
- Lovett: Erin Turner
- Sumner Hill: Felicia Gavin
- CHS: Karen Lee
