MC Library to host book bazaar April 6

Special to The Clinton Courier

The Leland Speed Library at Mississippi College is preparing for their semi-annual book bazaar. The three-day event—previously held in Alumni Hall—takes place in the alleyway between Aven Hall and the library itself, located at 201 West College Street in Clinton. Over twenty-five tables will fill the alley. Thousands of fiction, children's, history, religion and other books will be offered at prices beginning at $1 for paperbacks and $2 for hardcover books. The event will take the place of the library's monthly bazaar for April, with first Thursday sales resuming in May.

The sale acts as a fundraiser to advance the library for the MC community. From upgraded computer systems to providing special events, the money raised helps improve the experience and the resources that the students and faculty need. The books themselves are mostly donated by the public, and provide an excellent way to grow personal libraries for book lovers throughout the community.

The sale opens Thursday, April 6, and will run through Saturday, April 8. The hours each day will be 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.
