Chase Lunceford of Clinton has been named the NCBWA National Player of the Week.

Special to The Clinton Courier

After producing five extra-base hits, driving in nine runs and scoring seven times in a 4-1 week vs. Arkansas and Wichita State, Louisiana Tech senior 3B Chase Lunceford has been named the NCBWA National Player of the Week.

Lunceford helped Louisiana Tech improve to 11-1 on the season after batting .421 (8-for-19) with at least one RBI in all five games during a 4-1 week. The Clinton, Mississippi, native had three multi-RBI outings as well as three multiple-hit games, scoring seven runs. Lunceford doubled twice in the win over Arkansas and hit three total home runs on the week, including becoming the first Louisiana Tech player to hit multiple home runs in a game in over two years during Sunday's series-ending sweep of Wichita State. Lunceford, who was spotlighted by D1Baseball for his performance against No. 20 Arkansas, also drew a pair of walks.

715 Oakwood Dr.
