

Theda Shirley Mullins to perform at Friday Nights at Milepost 89

Special to The Clinton Courier

Friday Nights at Milepost 89 will feature Theda Shirley Mullins on Friday, August 18. Friday Nights at Milepost 89 is every third Friday of the month at 7 p.m. Admission to each performance is at least "89" cents. The event takes place inside the Clinton Visitor Center.

Mullins, singer and songwriter, says she cannot remember a time in her life when she didn't sing. Singing was her personal escape and entertainment. She has been a contract performer at the Ozark Folk Center in Mountain View, Arkansas, has received "Musician of the Year Award," and has performed during the Merle Travis Tribute weekend at the Ozark Folk Center.

Joining Mullins for the evening will be friends of hers who are a group of multi-instrumentalists steeped in their own style of bluegrass, gospel, folk, and melodic easy-going songs: Wilson Karges, David McCoy, Joe Jordan and Mark Weilenman.

The Clinton Visitor Center Weekend Music Scene offers a large amount of entertainment and fun, year-round, to visitors and residents alike.

The center is located at 1300 Pinehaven Road. To get there, take the Clinton exit at Milepost 89 on the Natchez Trace Parkway and turn left onto Pinehaven Road; or from I-20 take Exit 36 and turn north onto Springridge Road, which becomes Pinehaven Road.

Arrows football radio broadcast to switch station analyst duties this season.

"We are thankful for the long-standing relationship between Clinton Public Schools and Star 93.5," said new CHS Athletic Director Brian Fortenberry. "The station has meant so much to Arrows football, CPSD, and the entire city of Clinton over the years. We are excited to have the opportunity to have the Arrows football broadcast on WJNT this fall."

Arrows football will also be streamed live for the 2017 season with the audio of broadcasters Oswalt and Griffin. Clinton fans can find more information about all the viewing/listening options for Arrow Athletics as the season draws closer through the websites at clintonpublicschools.com and at arrowathletics.com.
