Sidewalk Sessions and after hours shopping on Aug. 31

Special to The Clinton Courier

Olde Towne Clinton will be the setting month for live music with the first fall Sidewalk Sessions of the season, coming right on the heels of the Red Brick Roads event. Sidewalk Sessions will be held on Thursday, August 31, from 6 until 9 p.m. The live music event features local artists and musicians scattered throughout the brick streets, with participating Olde Towne businesses staying open late for after-hours shopping. Codetta South will play on the porch at Cups from 7 until 9 p.m., and James & Leigh and Ellie's of Olde Towne will be open late on Monroe Street, along with Brick Street Pops. The Nostalgics will play on Jefferson Street in front of the Hetrick Team of Re/Max Alliance, with Ollie + Rae and Good Citizen open late across the street.

Attendees are invited to grab a bite to eat and enjoy local talent at the late night event in Olde Towne. For more information or to participate in the Sidewalk Sessions as a musician or artist, call the Main Street Clinton office at 601-924-5472 or visit www.mainstreetclintonms.com/OTAD. The event is free to the public.

Arrow Nation: A history of Clinton High School football

"I didn't go to Clinton High School, but I really fell in love with the team," he adds. "The program is at a high level now, and I expect them to be good for a long time."

He says people have asked about him writing an Arrows football book, but he's glad Irwin was the one to head up the project: "He did hours and hours of research, and I'm amazed he was able to compile everything so soon. I'm proud that he did this, and I'm happy to be a part of it."

Irwin says he learned a lot through his research, including the origin behind the names of certain buildings or sports awards.

"I think it's interesting that people don't really know the history of the program," says Irwin. He adds that he's had people tell him they never knew their mothers were homecoming queens or that their neighbors were football team captains until they read his book.

"It's a must read for anyone who's played football for Clinton or been a fan," says Davis. "I think people are going to be very happy with it."

The first 100 copies of Arrow Nation have been printed and will be available this month for $25. Irwin says past Clinton football players donated money to help cover the cost of the initial printing, and profits from the first batch will help fund more copies.

"I chose to self-publish the book through Amazon, because it gave me the freedom and creativity I wanted," Irwin says.

Irwin plans to do a book signing during a Clinton football alum recognition night in the fall, where part of the proceeds would go to Big Red Arrow, which supports the Clinton football team.

Irwin, who was a Big Red Arrow coordinator from 2012-2015, says he wants the book to get people supporting the team as a city.

"I hope it makes them put Clinton football on their Friday night must-do list," he said.
