

McClendon of Clinton named Hinds Homecoming queen

Special to The Clinton Courier

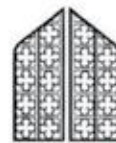

Kontessa McClendon of Clinton, a graduate of Clinton High School, was recently crowned queen at Hinds Community College's annual Homecoming celebration. She is the daughter of Michael and Tammy McClendon. A Raymond Campus sophomore, she is majoring in elementary education. She is a Dean's Scholar, a Resident Assistant at Marshall Hall, serves as president of I.D.E.A.L. Woman and is a tutor at the Writing Center. Hinds President Dr. Clyde Muse (right) presented McClendon's crown. Pictured at left is McClendon's escort, DeAuntray Smith of Jackson, a Forest Hill High School graduate. The flower girl was Hallie Faye Horne, and crown bearer was Jax Mitchell.
