

Chamber seeks nominations for annual awards

Special to The Clinton Courier

The Clinton Chamber of Commerce is making plans for the January 25, 2018, annual celebration. At the yearly dinner, the Clinton Chamber presents its Presidential, Ambassador of the Year and Distinguished Service Awards. They also recognize special individuals and businesses that have made exceptional contributions to the City of Clinton. Nominations are being accepted for the Outstanding Citizen Award, the Small Business of the Year and the Large Business of the Year.

The nominee for Outstanding Citizen Award must have been active in community activities, a resident of the Clinton Public School District, and have an excellent reputation and character. The Business of the Year Awards are given to outstanding Chamber members which have shown growth, innovation of product, exemplary customer service and/or contributions to the community. The Small Business of the Year is given to an establishment with one to ten employees, and the Large Business of the Year with one to eleven or more employees. Contact the Clinton Chamber at director@clintonchamber.org or 601-924-5912 to receive a nomination form for the awards. Nominations should be submitted by Monday, November 20, to be considered.
