

MC PA students to hold Jingle Jog 5K

Special to The Clinton Courier

Runners can gear up for a fun experience while getting plenty of exercise at the Jingle Jog 5K. Mississippi College physician assistant students are sponsoring the December 9 race in Clinton.

The fee to enter is $30, and that includes post-race snacks, a shirt with long white cotton sleeves and the chance to receive door prizes. The race begins at 8 a.m. that Saturday at First Baptist Church Clinton, and it ends there as well. Kids under age 10 are invited to participate in a fun run starting at 9 a.m.

The MC PA Donald Fisher Society serves as the official sponsor of the second annual road race. Funds raised will send MC PA students in the Class of 2019 to the American Academy of Physician Assistants Conference. It takes place May 19-23 at the Ernest Morial Convention Center in New Orleans.

Packets for the Jingle Jog race can be picked up on Friday, December 8, at the Baptist Healthplex on the Clinton campus.

Mississippi College leaders welcomed the state's first Physician Assistant program in 2011. The program began with thirty students and today enrolls more than ninety graduate students at its Baptist Healthplex headquarters. The thirty-month program gives students the professional tools to work under the supervision of physicians.

The race is open to the public. For more information, contact LaKendra Wiley at lwiley@mc.edu or Renee Kendrick at the Department of Physician Assistant Studies at 601-925-7371.

CHS Transition/Life Skills students attend forum

Special to The Clinton Courier

Clinton High School Transition/Life Skills students, along with the district Transition Coordinator, Grace Harris, attended the Mississippi Council on Economic Education 2017 Forum on American Enterprise that was held at the Jackson Convention Complex. Harris shared about the School-Based Enterprise (Pretzel Cafe) at the high school, noting how students are given the opportunity to practice real life financial skills. The Pretzel Cafe operates, in part, thanks to an entrepreneurship grant from the Council. Pictured (l to r) are Mississippi Attorney General Jim Hood, Grace Harris, Trey'vin Young, Jessica Nash, and Mississippi Treasurer Lynn Fitch.
