

Attaché Show Choir takes the stage for their fall revue

Special to The Clinton Courier

Clinton High's nationally recognized Attaché Show Choir takes the stage for its annual Fall Revue December 6-9 at Clinton High School's auditorium. Performances begin each evening at 7:30.

The 38th Attaché Fall Revue will debut a preview of Attaché's 2018 Competition Show, "The Beatles," a historic trip about the number one rock group of all time.

Also featured will be songs from the popular Broadway musicals Rent, Jersey Boys and Grease.

"We want the Fall Revue to honor the nineteen years of Attaché summer musicals," says Attaché Director David Fehr. "We have current Attaché alumni performing on Broadway, the Grand Ole Opry, Branson, Chicago, and choreographing and teaching all over the United States."

Over the course of the Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evening performances, the Attaché Fall Revue will provide an opportunity for the Clinton community and families in the Jackson area to catch the show choir before they begin competition season in early 2018.

America's premier show choir will compete at the South Central Classic in Homewood, Alabama, the Petal Invitational in Petal, and Xtravaganza in Los Alamitos, California. Attaché will also once again serve as host of the Show Choir Nationals, which is held annually at the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville, Tennessee.

Attaché has amassed one of the most impressive competition records of any other show choir in America. Since 1992, Attaché has won seventy-four Grand Champion titles and earned the number one spot in the 2017 and 2016 National Show Choir Rankings. During the Fehrs' twenty-five years of leadership, the show choir has never lost a competition in Mississippi or the South.

"One of the reasons our program is so successful is because of our community, school district and parents," Fehr said. "Without their support, our program would not exist."
