BTI buys Great Bend Farm Equipment

On Jan. 17, Bucklin Tractor and Implement Company, Bucklin, Kansas, will take ownership of Great Bend Farm Equipment, Great Bend, Kansas.

Cody Dick is the new general manager of the Great Bend location. He said this addition to the BTI family of dealerships will help bring a more aggressive sales force, more agronomic/technological solutions and more resources to Great Bend's customers.

"The big thing, of course, is that the same service that they received from Great Bend Farm Equipment will continue with BTI," Dick said. "They have a motto, 'A Service You Can Believe In,' and we will keep to that motto. We want customers to continue to be proud of their equipment dealer. When the need comes to bring equipment in for service, the customer will know the work done is right, as the same people they have dealt with in the past and have learned to trust will be there to take care of their needs."
