

BEST EYE DOCTOR

Dr. Alan Bugg

Dr. Alan Bugg was born in Illinois and raised in Clinton, Ky. After graduating high school, he received a bachelor of science degree from Murray State University and his Doctorate of Optometry degree from Southern College of Optometry in Memphis.

While at SCO, he received the William Feinbloom Award for Low Vision. He holds licenses to practice in both Tennessee and Kentucky and began his career in 1982 in his hometown of Clinton.

He later opened an office in Union City and in 2004 built a new office that is currently Union City Eye Care.

He always strives to

maintain a high level of current education and believes strongly in the use of state-of-the-art technology to help diagnose and treat eye disease.

Dr. Bugg is a member of the American Optometric Association, the Tennessee Association of Optometric Physicians, the Kentucky

Optometric Association, the Northwest TN Optometric Association and the Vision Source National Optometrist Network.

He is also a fellow of the Tennessee Academy of Optometry.

In 2011, he was a member of the first group of optometrists in the US to pass the examination to become board certified by the American Board of Optometry.

He has been an annual recipient of the Optometric Recognition Award since 1984 when the AOA first began presenting the award.

Dr Bugg is married to the former Nancy Milner and they have three sons, Brandon, Bradley and Britton.

BEST EMT

Donnie Robinson

Donny Robinson II is a full-time paramedic with Baptist Memorial Hospital and part-time with Haywood Ambulance Authority and Lake County EMS.

He has worked in EMS since 2013. Prior to EMS, Robinson worked at the former Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. in Union City as a tire builder for 14 years until its closure.

He went back to school at Dyersburg State Community College and obtained his Associates of Applied Science Paramedic Licensure.

Donny says he enjoys his job because "it is extremely rewarding to know that I'm doing the best I can to help people and make a positive contribution to my community."

He is a Golden Tornado 1993 graduate and is mar-
