

BEST FUNERAL HOME — Edmaiston-Mosley

BEST FUNERAL HOME — Edmaiston-Mosley Funeral Home opened its doors as Dilday Funeral Home to Obion County and the surrounding area on June 27, 2006. Allen Edmaiston and Mark Mosley operated the business for Steve Carter of Huntingdon until Jan. 1, 2009, when they became sole owners and operators of the business. They each have 27 years of experience, serving families of Obion County. Cody Martin joined the staff of Edmaiston-Mosley Funeral Home Dec. 6, 2015. Edmaiston-Mosley has had the honor of serving 1,085 families since it opened. The funeral home is built on one level and is fully handicap accessible and features a children's room, with items to entertain children during visitation and the funeral service. It also has a full-service kitchen to make families feel at home, while visiting the funeral home. We would like to thank the people of Obion County for selecting Edmaiston-Mosley Funeral Home as "Best Funeral Home" for 2017. It has been an honor to serve the community for the past 11 years, and we will strive to continue providing professional and compassionate care to the families of Obion County.

Thank You Obion County for voting us Best Funeral Home in 2017!

Pictured L to R: Allen Edmaiston, Cody Martin, Mark Mosley.

Edmaiston-Mosley
Funeral Home

1200 S. Miles Ave • Union City, TN

"A New Tradition In Funeral Service" 885-1033