BEST PHOTOGRAPHY

Abrea Crackel

BEST PHOTOGRAPHY — Abrea Crackel has been photographing weddings, high school seniors, newborns and families in Obion County and surrounding areas for over five years now. "I grew up in Troy, but moved to Nashville to study photography at Nossi College of Art, and graduated with a degree in commercial digital photography in 2011. Instead of using a studio as my backdrop, I take my clients to locations that best fit their tastes — from rustic fields and country barns, to classic downtowns and antique buildings. My style is clean, a bit candid and natural. I want my clients to feel comfortable in front of my camera, and I want them to walk away with pictures that capture this time in their life, perfectly. I am based out of Union City, but have traveled all over the state and around the south for my clients," Ms. Crackel said.

BEST AUCTIONEER

Steve Goodrich

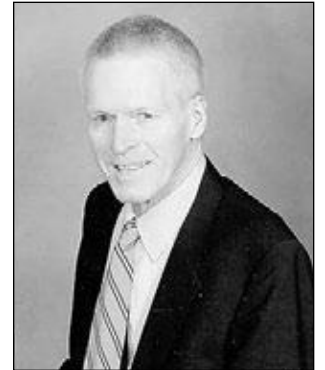

Steve Goodrich was chosen as The Messenger's Best of the Best auctioneer.

"I would like to take this opportunity to thank the people of Obion County for this nomination and honor. My goal, as always, is to serve my community to the best of my ability as both a businessman and a county commissioner.

"I am a graduate of the Nashville Auction School. I have been a full-time real estate broker and auctioneer since 1977 and work with Century 21 Golden Service Realty and Auction Inc. in Union City," he said.

Goodrich is a 1974 graduate of the University of Tennessee at Martin, where he earned a bachelor of science degree in secondary education.

He is a former econom-
