Spend an Evening with Clint Black, Thursday, Sept 7

Clint Black will perform at 8 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 7, at Festival Park. The performance will be free.

To date, Clint Black has sold more than 20 million albums worldwide and racked up 57 charted singles, 31 top-10 hits and 22 number-one smashes. Recordings such as "A Better Man," "Killin' Time," "Like the Rain," "When I Said I Do" and "Nothin' But the Taillights" have led to honors from the Country Music Association, the Academy of Country Music, the Grammys, and the American Music Awards, as well as membership in the cast of the Grand Ole Opry.

Raised in the suburbs of Houston, Texas, Clint Black is the youngest of four brothers. He began performing with brother Kevin at the family's backyard barbecues.

After high school, he worked construction for a year and spent 10 years on the local nightclub circuit. He auditioned for a Nashville recording contract in 1988. The following year, he led a movement of young talent that transformed country music into a multi-million dollar industry in the 1990s.
