

Live and Let Die a symphonic tribute to Paul McCartney

Veteran of the Broadway hit, Beatlemania, Tony Kishman has toured worldwide with productions of Twist and Shout, Classical Mystery Tour, All You Need Is Love, Legends in Concert, and was a member of classic rock band, Wishbone Ash.

Live and Let Die features a four piece band lead by Tony Kishman (vocals, bass, guitar & piano) and a full symphony orchestra lead by orchestrator & conductor, Martin Herman. You'll hear, complete in every detail, hit songs from the Beatles catalog and Paul McCartney's solo works.

Some of the songs featured in the show include: Hey Jude, Penny Lane, Live and Let Die, Yesterday, My Love, Uncle Albert, Let It Be, Maybe I'm Amazed, Hello Good-Bye, Long and Winding Road, Silly Love Songs, Jet, When I'm Sixty-Four and many more Tuesday, September 5 in Downtown Martin after the TN Soybean parade. The free performance begins at 8 p.m.
